NOTICE INFLUENZA VICTIMS

Every person that has been afflicted with influenza should take the Vital-itas tonic. Vitalitas contains the ferrous and ferric sulphates of iron, magnesium and sulphur, and is the character of iron the human system assimilates, which will build up the red corpuscles in the blood, give vitality to important tissues and drive out of your body the toxic poisons. Vital-itas has been used by thousands and they all testify to its merits as a strength builder. It also sweeps from the system such disorders as rheumatism, indigestion, kidney and liver ills. Remember it is the remedy free of alcohol or drugs, and the most delicate invalid can use it. We urge the public to use the Vitalitas treatment. Multitudes have found relief in it when every other remedy has failed; get it today at Dows

MISS LEEDS APPOINTED REGISTRATION AGENT

Announcement was made today of the appointment of Miss Dorothy S.
Leeds as registration agent for Lowell under the provisions of the "work or fight" law, to succeed John M. O'Donoghue, who has entered the national service. Miss Leeds' appointment

MISS DOROTHY S. LEEDS

comes from Charles F. Gettany, director of the "work or fight" bureau for Massachusetts.

The new registration agent has assisted Mr. Donoghue materially in the enforcement of the law and practically all of the detailed clerical work has been in her hands. Since Mr. O'Don-oghue's entrance into the Students' Army Training corps, she has administered the work herself and her formal appointment comes only as a natural promotion.

Miss Leeds is chief stenographer at the war work headquarters and is a graduate of the Lowell high school class of 1915. She was a Carney medal scholar and secretary of her class.

GREEKS WERE CRUELY TREATED BY BULGARS

SALONIKI, Saturday, Oct. 26.—The Bulgarians, during their occupation of eastern Macedonia, attempted to force the Greeks of that province to become Bulgarians and treated the Greeks cruelly, declares Dr. Pasis, vice president of the Greek chamber of deputies and deputy for Serres.
"There were wholesale deportations and the people were abandoned to famine, outrage and murder," said Dr.
Pasis who has returned from a trip through eastern Macedonia. "The destruction of villages far from the war zone was a measure to which the Bulgarians would not have recourse had eastern Macedonia been Bulgarian instead of Greek. The Bulgarians gathered together a large number of Greek children and sent them into Bulgaria without the parents of the children knowing the purposes of the Bulgarians."

In a hospital in Saloniki is a 14-year-old Greek girl, Agatha Noul, who was cruelly treated by the Bulgarian who murdered her father and mother.
The father, the mayor of Bourgade, died at the hands of the Bulgarians with these words on his lips: "I was born a Greek and I will die a Greek."
The girl's mother died as a result of inhuman treatment at the hands of Bulgarian officers.

Declares Readiness to Negotiate Peace and Immediate Truce and Accepts Wilson's Views

Reply to Wilson's Note of Oct. 19 Follows Germany's Request for Allied Armistice Terms—Official German Note Received—President Not Expected to Make Reply—Ludendorff Quit After Row With Prince Max

(By the Associated Press.)

Austria-Hungary, close upon the heels of Germany's request for allied armistice terms, replied to President Wilson's note of October 19, and declares her readiness to negotiate a peace and an immediate armistice on all the Austrian fighting fronts.

Accepts All of Wilson's Views
The Austrian government also says it accepts all the views expressed by the president.

This would indicate that Austria is willing to have the Czecho-Slovaks and Jugo-Slavs determine the measure of independence they desire from the Hapsburg monarchy, but with the text of the reply not yet received this point is not clear.

Wilson Not to Answer Germany

An allied reply to Germany concerning armistice terms has not yet been announced.

The text of the German note has been received in Washington, but it is indicated that the president probably will not reply to the German government whose note is looked upon as an acknowledgment of the president's latest note.

Germany Asks Terms

Germany's note asks the allies to name the terms for an armistice. It calls attention to the "far-reaching changes made in the German constitutional structure and avers that a people's government, which is in control of the military powers of Germany, is carrying on the negotiations.

Allies Decide on Terms

It is understood that the allies have decided upon the terms to be exacted before hostilities are suspended, but that these terms will not be announced until the German note is officially made public.

Gen. Ludendorff Resigns

Gen. Ludendorff's retirement as first quartermaster-general of the German army is reported to have resulted from the action of the civil authorities in taking control of the military. It is reported also that the general resigned owing to a complete disagreement with Chancellor Prince Maximilian.

LOWELL MEN'S NAMES ON CASUALTY LIST

Today's casualty list contains the names of two Lowell men. Private William J. Mitchell of the 107th Infantry is reported dead from wounds received in action and Corp. John T.
McQuesten of Co. K, 104th Infantry, is reported wounded, degree undetermined.

Private Mitchell is a brother of Miss Mary Mitchell of 119 East Merrimack street. She has received word that the Lowell soldier died in France on Sept. 22. He enlisted in New York city some time ago and was at first with the 12th New York Regiment, but later transferred to the 107th Infantry.
Besides his sister, he leaves a brother,
James, of Lowell, Thomas of New York city and Patrick of Syracuse, N. Y.

Corp. John T. McQuesten
Word of Corp. McQuesten being wounded has previously reached Lowell through a message from the war department. Corp. McQuesten is the son of Mrs. Alma McQuesten of 118 D street. He enlisted in Co. K of the old Sixth Regiment on December 13 1915.

Private Claude L. Brown Sunday's casualty list contained the name of Private Claude L. Brown of Tynsbury, reported severely wounded in action. He is now recuperating at the Walter Reed hospital in Washington, D. C. Private Brown is the son of E. L. Brown of the Wannalancit Inn, Tynsbury, and went to Camp Devens last spring. He was later transferred to Long Island and eventually to England. He went to France early in the summer.

Private Brown was injured in action
July 21 and has lost one of his legs as a result. He is 27 years of age and was connected with Co. K, 58th Infantry.

Private John F. O'Donnell
Yesterday's casualty list also contained the name of Private John F.
O'Donnell of Battery F, 30th Field
Artillery, reported slightly wounded on August 21. He is the son of Mrs.
Mary E. O'Donnell of 10 Howe street and in a letter recently received here he said he had been gassed, but no mention was made of his being wounded.

Private O'Donnell went to Camp Devens shortly after his opening and sailed overseas early this year. He was formerly employed by the American Hides & Leather Co., and was well known in amateur baseball circles a few years ago. He is a former member of the O.M.I. Cadets.

RAPID DECREASE IN THE INFLUENZA CASES

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—Statewide figures submitted by the state board of health today indicated a rapid decrease in the number of cases of influenza and deaths during the past two days. A tabulation of the reports from 80 cities and towns for the 48 hour period showed 1237 new cases and 54 deaths.
New Bedford and Springfield reported the largest numbers, the former city having 195 new cases with 15 deaths and the latter 137 new cases with nine deaths.
In Boston there were but 26 new cases reported, with 11 deaths.

four days. He was widely known in agricultural circles in New England and Canada.

THE BAN LIFTED

Lowell Opens Up for Business After Shut Down
Due to Epidemic

Twenty-six New Cases of Influ Reported—Patients at Isolation Hospital

Lowell resumed the normal tenor of her business and social activities today after a general shut-down of some four weeks due to the gravest health menace which has ever confronted the city. This morning marked the general lifting of the ban, which the Lowell board of health had thrown across practically all the activities of the community in the interest of the public health while the influenza epidemic raged with unswaying volume.

The first indication that "things were as they should be" was evident at 6 o'clock when the saloons re-opened after a month's vacation and catered to their customary patronage. Then at 8.15 the school bell rang and all the public schools, together with the majority of the parochial schools, threw open their doors and made a fresh start on the 1918-19 school year.

Incidentally, the ban on soda fountains came off this morning, but the soft-drink providers reported no land-office business during the early part of the day, because people had evidently been out of the habit of drinking at the fountains so long that it took them some time to realize that they had actually been re-opened.

Perhaps the most material evidence of the city's resumption was the opening of the theatres this afternoon for their first performance in more than four weeks. There were fairly large audiences in all the local houses.

WAR WORK CAMPAIGN

Lowell Men Attend Meeting of Catholics to Discuss War Work Campaign

About 1000 Catholics representing various parishes in the Boston archdiocese met in St. Alphonsus' theatre Roxbury, yesterday afternoon for the purpose of receiving instructions concerning the drive for the United War Work campaign, which will take place from Nov. 11 to 18 inclusive. The speakers discussed the proposed work from its various angles, while returned soldiers from the battlefield told of the great work which the several organizations are doing and how it has aided in upbuilding and maintaining the morale of the troops. The principal speaker at the meeting was Francis E. Slattery, chairman of the committee of the city, who pointed out that the National Catholic War council was one of the seven organizations which is to benefit by the drive and that the Knights of Columbus was the active war agency. He stated that the drive had been brought about at the suggestion of President Wilson and that Catholics throughout the country would cheerfully co-operate with the other organizations. He said it is the hope of the archdiocesan officials to turn over not less than 45,000 workers to aid in the campaign.

Other speakers were Rev. Augustine F. Hickey, supervisor of Catholic schools in the archdiocese, who told of the part the school boys and girls will take in the campaign; Lawyer Hugh A. Carney, chairman of the speakers' committee, who stated what would be expected of the 1500 speakers to be engaged in the campaign; Joseph T. Brennan, secretary for the executive committee, who reported on the work already done and Lieut. Paul Hines, a veteran of the Chateau Thierry campaign, who told what is being done "over there" by the various organizations.

Among the Lowell men attending the meeting were the following: Rev. D. J. Heffernan, Rev. Robert J. McCoy, O.M.I., Hon. James B. Casey, chairman of the campaign for the Lowell district; Hon. James E. O'Donnell, Hon. John F. Neenan, Hon. Dennis J. Murphy, City Solicitor William D. Regan, Bernard D. Ward, William E. Biley, Supt. of Schools Hugh J. Molloy, Dr. Hugh Walker, Daniel J. Cosgrove, Daniel F. Carroll, Joseph F. Donohoe, James E. Burns, Francis X. Roche, Lieut. Bernard D. McArdle and John V. Donoghue. Lieut. McArdle has been delegated to take charge of the junior end of the campaign in the Lowell district.

BIG RECORD FOR YANKS

Free 165 Square Miles and
45 Villages and Capture
20,000 in Month

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 28.—(By the Associated Press)—In its first major operation against the Germans, considering the clearing out of the St. Mihiel salient as a local affair, the American army in a few days less than a month has liberated more than 45 villages and advanced to an average depth of 10 miles, freeing 165 square miles of territory. In the offensive the Americans have captured more than 20,000 prisoners.

The Americans attacked on a front of 20 miles from the Argonne to the Meuse, and the advance has been made in the face of almost insurmountable difficulties, due particularly to the nature of the ground which is covered with hills, deep ravines and woods.

In addition the Americans had to fight their way through four organized systems of trenches—the Hindenburg line, the Hagen position, the Volker position, and the Kreimhilde position.

They have forced their way through all these lines. Ahead of them lies the Freya position, which has been reached at one point in the region of the Bantheville Wood.

The advance has been particularly difficult because the Germans have stubbornly resisted every foot of the way and have used more than 33 divisions on the 20-mile front. The enemy continues to make a formidable effort to hold this front in order to protect his great lateral lines of communication running through Hirsion, Metz, Sedan, Montmedy and Longuyon. This line is already threatened, and should the Germans lose it they will lose their main line of communication from Germany into occupied France.

In addition to the prisoners, General Pershing's men have taken more than 137 guns of large calibre, numerous machine guns and anti-tank guns, a great store of ammunition and much war material, including locomotives and railway cars.

Since Sept. 26 the Americans have fired more than 2,500,000 shells, the number at times reaching as high as 150,000 daily. The guns used included a great number of heavy ones and also some captured from the enemy.

American aviators and anti-aircraft guns in the period since Sept. 27 have brought down 230 enemy machines and 23 enemy balloons, despite adverse flying conditions and bad weather at times. Bombing airplanes have dropped more than 40,000 kilograms of explosives on railroad centers, troops concentrations and other points behind the enemy lines.

Big Work for Engineers
From the view of the engineer, the most difficult task faced has been the repairing of roads and the movement of supplies, men, ammunition and food to the front. More than 40,000 engineer troops are employed day and night in rebuilding shell-shattered roads, using where possible crushed rock from villages destroyed by the German shells.

In the Argonne hundreds of yards of German barbed wire entanglements, fastened from tree to tree at various heights, had to be bridged as it was impossible to cut them. In addition, many roads in the Argonne were of black loam, which became a morass in rainy weather. The engineers were compelled to virtually build bridges over many miles of these roads.

The crossing of Forges brook was accomplished in the first day of the advance under a heavy fire. The brook runs through marshy lands and in order to bridge it the engineers had to lay bundles of faggots on both sides of the stream. The crossing was made in record time and then began the battle of the Argonne, which lasted for more than two weeks.

Compilations made by army officers show that of the more than 165 square miles taken from the enemy since Sept. 26 almost one-half were heavily wooded and machine-gun infested. The Americans had to take by storm 132 hills and high crests, most of which were heavily wooded and defended by strong machine gun detachments.

Of the hills 141 were west of the Meuse and 18 east of the river. The Germans also had to be driven from 430 ravines, all defended by machine guns, and nearly as hard to take as the hills.

General Pershing's men have had to advance against the pick of the German army, fighting desperately to hold this important front. Their difficulties are understood more easily when the number of hills, woods and ravines they have had to take is considered.

RED TRIANGLE WORKERS HOLD MEETING

A report in connection with the Red Triangle campaign, was made by the treasurer, C. B. Redway, at a meeting of the executive committee, held on Saturday. This meeting of local Red Triangle workers at war work headquarters was in charge of Otto Hockmeyer. The reports submitted by the treasurer included statements in connection with the last two campaigns, namely, that of June 26, 1917, when the sum of $18,063.07 was raised, and the other beginning November 11, 1917, at which time $177,635.67 was realized.

A brief address was made by Mr. Hockmeyer, congratulating the workers on the success of the two campaigns. He spoke of the coming campaign for seven organizations, giving encouraging words for another success, and expressing the hope that the same spirit of co-operation would exist. He then formally presented to the city of Lowell the elegantly bound book containing the names of contributors and workers who participated in the two campaigns. This book will be placed in the city library.

TO ALL WOMEN WHO ARE ILL

This Woman Recommends
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Her Personal Experience.

McLean, Neb.—"I want to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all women who suffer from any functional disturbance, as it has done me more good than all the doctor's medicine. Since taking it I have a fine healthy baby girl and have gained in health and strength. My husband and I both praise your medicine to all suffering women."—Mrs. JOHN KOPPELMANN, R. No. 1, McLean, Nebraska.

This famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, has been restoring women of America to health for more than forty years and it will well pay any woman who suffers from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness or "the blues" to give this successful remedy a trial.

The letters constantly being published from women in every section of this country prove beyond question the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

BRING YOUR OLD RECORDS FOR THE BOYS
OVER THERE

$29.50 SALE Of Women's $40, $45 and $50 COATS—$29.50

Every coat is positively worth $40, $45 and $50 in real money. They are absolutely $40—$50 values, not only in quality and workmanship but in style. Not copies of $40, $45 and $50 coats but the original $40, $45 and $50 models made up by some of the best New York designers and manufacturers who were caught in the dull market that has been sweeping the country from coast to coast.

SALE IN THE FASHION SHOPS—SECOND FLOOR—CHALIFOUX'S

Wonderful Silvertones and ALL WOOL Velours. Some have huge fur collars that button up around the throat and keep you as warm as toast. Some have fur cuffs. Others are plain for women who like to wear their furs with their coats.

ALL ARE REMARKABLE VALUES

Only one condition could have brought about such values right at the height of the season, in war times—a slackening of business on the New York market. We hastened to New York and took advantage of manufacturers unloading surplus stocks of their latest models.

PLUSH COATS WITH FUR COLLARS

PLAIN COATS OF CUT BOLIVIA

A selection of styles, colors and materials limited only by the number of coats—fifty—Khaki and Pekin Blue and Reindeer are some of the fine, fashionable shades. Burgundy is another. Navy, Black and Green are included.

Some are belted only in front and the button makers must be prosperous this season judging by the lavish use of buttons for trimming. Otherwise coat are plain. Their beauty lies in their simplicity.

The sale is for women and young women and women with youthful figures. Fifth Avenue styles. Chalifoux Values. Black Coats for mourning.

We wish to call your attention to the window display of Fall Corsets. All the leading makes of Corsets are to be found in our Corset Shop—Second Floor.

Give Your Old Records to the Boys Over There

Bring any records you're willing to part with to Chalifoux's Victrola Store, 4th floor, and we'll see that they are sent to the boys over there. It's a wonderful thing to do and the boys will bless you for your thoughtful consideration. Scratch your name and address on the smooth part of each record with any sharp pointed instrument so the boys over there will know the sender.

Try this easy way to clear your skin

There is no need of enduring the discomfort that comes from a skin which itches and burns, or is marred by patches of eruption. Resinol Ointment usually relieves itching at once, and quickly makes the skin clear and healthy again.

Resinol Ointment is gentle and soothing and has been a standard skin treatment for over twenty years, so you need not hesitate to use it or recommend it to your friends.

Sold by all druggists.
Resinol Shaving Stick tends to prevent irritation.

HARNESS RECORDS HELD FIRM IN 1918

That Father Time is a tough customer to beat is shown by the fact that the world's harness records for all ages, both trotters and pacers, remain much the same as a year ago, notwithstanding the fact that the season of 1918 was replete with brilliant performances.

When Hollywood Bob, by Peter the Great, 2:07 1/4, went a heat in a 2:02 1/4 at the first meeting in which the prominent futurity candidates took part, and had a band of youngsters behind him that plainly showed that they had 2:05 or better speed on tap, it was predicted that the record for three-year-old trotters would be dismantled, yet it still remains to the credit of Real

News From Camp Devens

MANY VISITORS AT CAMP DEVENS—10,000 AUTOMOBILES AT CAMP SUNDAY

CAMP DEVENS, Oct. 28.—The 12th division has never before seen such a crowd of visitors as it did yesterday. It was without doubt one of the biggest days at Camp Devens since the New England campaign opened, for more than 200,000 people came here from all parts of New England. At least 10,000 automobiles were here, this making the biggest day for automobiles since the ban was lifted on the use of gasoline on the Sabbath. It was generally agreed.

They flocked into camp, and then out again, for there were no restrictions on the movements of the soldiers, and, as the weather was ideal, they simply "beat it for the open country" as soon as they were found by their friends. The day was ideal for tramping, and everybody took advantage of it. Anywhere within 10 miles of the camp they could be seen, the bright dresses of the visitors and beside them the olive drab of Uncle Sam.

In Ayer special policemen were stationed everywhere to handle the huge volume of traffic, and between Ayer and the camp the military police and provost guard had men stationed to keep things moving, and moving in the proper way. The result was that although it was one of the biggest days Camp Devens has ever seen, there was no confusion and everything ran smoothly. The M. P.'s and the provost guard have received compliments for the manner in which they handled the visitors.

Special trains from Boston arrived at regular intervals and last night they went back loaded down with happy but tired visitors.

There was one visitor at camp yesterday, though, who isn't as happy as she was when she arrived Saturday. She is 13-year-old Laura Vigue of Waterville, Me. She left her home Friday for Camp Devens, where she intended to look up a friend, Private Joseph A. St. Peter of the 35th company, depot brigade. Friday night the state police and the military authorities received a telegram from her father asking that she be detained, as he was coming here to get her.

Officer James Devereaux of the state police located her yesterday and brought her back to her father who was anxiously waiting for her. Officer Devereaux found her in camp, still looking for the friend, who, by the way, was not in camp.

Boys Have Extra Sleep

Those doughboys who were in camp over Sunday had 1-2 hours' extra sleep Saturday night. They figure it this way:

As the clocks were all set back one hour they gained an hour. Then, as the new time went into effect, reveille was ordered for 5:15 instead of 5:45 on the old time. On Sunday reveille is sounded an hour later than it is on week days, so Sunday morning they figure that the bugles really blew at 7:15.

The difference between 5:45 and 7:15 being 1-2 hours, the mathematicians say that they gained 1-2 hours. But even the figures won't admit that they were any more anxious to leave the hay Sunday morning than they are any other morning. In accordance with the new time system, retreat was sounded at 9 last night instead of 5:30. Maj. Gen. McCain attended church in camp Sunday morning. He went to Y.M.C.A. Hut 30, where Chaplain Harrison of the 73rd Infantry preached. The general spends almost as much time in his office on Sunday as he does on a week day. Gen. McCain doesn't believe in allowing a minute to go to waste until after Germany is licked to a standstill.

For the first time in many months the military authorities held up every automobile entering the camp after dark last night and each car was thoroughly searched for liquor. It appears that some of the surrounding towns are becoming lax in regard to the order that no liquor is to be furnished to men in uniform, and bootleggers are once more on the rampage. A quantity of strong drink was found by the police Saturday night and in many cases the names of those who furnished it to the soldiers were secured.

Placed on Provost Guard

Lieut. T. F. McCarthy of Waltham, former assistant to Dist. Atty. Nate Tufts, and Lieut. W. E. Murray, who was commissioned on the other side and who while fighting there as a member of the 16th Infantry was gassed, have been assigned to duty with the provost guard.

A memorandum just issued points out to the soldiers of this army that an army chaplain has no other privileges in the matter of marriage than has any other clergyman. It appears that many soldiers have thought that because they are in the army they can get married without the usual business of securing a license. It is for the benefit of these that the memorandum has been issued.

Another order forbids the wearing of trench caps on this side of the water by men who have returned to this country from France.

TROLLEY CAR HITS AUTO

Miss Costello and Miss Boyle

Injured in Accident in Rogers Street

Although Miss Susie Costello and Miss Mary Boyle were painfully hurt when the electric automobile in which they were riding late Saturday afternoon was run into by a Bay State trolley on Rogers street, their attending physician today says they will probably not suffer permanently from the results of the accident although each woman experienced a severe shock.

The accident occurred when Miss Costello who has owned and operated the electric Victoria in which she and her guest were riding, turned out to avoid a car parked in front of the entrance to Rogers Hall. She was able to do this all right. The accident was caused when Miss Costello, who says she brought her automobile to a stop, and held up her hand as a signal to the motorman to stop his car, the trolley came down the incline at that point at so fast a clip that at that particular point the motorman could not stop his car quick enough to avoid hitting the automobile with the two women.

The car was overturned and Miss Boyle was more severely hurt than Miss Costello. The electric Victoria has been ruined in the collision beyond all possible hope of repair. It was a car for which the Costello family had a great deal of affection owing to the faithful service the car gave it. It was one of two sample and especially made to order cars built by a manufacturer, one of which went to Thomas A. Edison, the inventor, and the other was bought for the use of the Costello family.

Following the accident Saturday both women were given temporary treatment at Rogers Hall and were later removed to their respective homes where they are resting comfortably today.

MANY ENROLL IN GAS HOUNDS REGIMENT

J. Addison, the young electrician at the Kiteon Machine Co. who is the recruiting officer in this city for the Gas Hounds regiment, stated today that 27 young men have already joined this popular branch of the overseas service.

New England's quota is 30,000, and

The Modern Epicure

The epicure of today could not ask a more delicious spread for biscuit, bread or toast than Benoit Brand "Sweet Nut" Margarine—the new table luxury made from fresh pasteurized milk and the crisp, white inside meat of the tropical coconut. Have you tried it yet? If not, lose no time in adding this real treat to your home menu. Taste it, and you will realize how good that wholesome, how really satisfying it is. Small wonder when you remember that it is made from nature's most appetizing foods. Only time is lost in getting to the store, 81 Merrimack St., up one flight. Benoit Brand "Sweet Nut" Margarine is sold in appreciative customers at 32c a pound. That's where you can also find Benoit Brand Teas, Coffees and Cocoa. Specialties retailed at wholesale prices.

Mr. Addison states that already 10,000 volunteers have been signed up. He expects that the remainder will be secured in the next two weeks, and his advice to anyone who contemplates an overseas trip with the Gas Hounds is to get on the band wagon now before it is too late.

Mr. Addison is instructed to enroll any man who registered in the 18-45 draft on Sept. 12, and the only requisites are that the applicant must get his serial number from the local board, and if possible, his classification card, although this last is not absolutely essential. He must also have had a little mechanical experience.

The recruiting officer may be seen on Monday and Saturday evenings at War Work headquarters, 119 Merrimack street, and on any other night at his home, 21 Sixth avenue. In speaking about the establishing of a special recruiting station, Mr. Addison said that anyone wishing to donate a small room in the downtown section to serve as a temporary station for the next two weeks would be the means of helping the cause to a great extent, as it would make it much handier for the would-be recruits to come to such a place, than to go up to his own residence.

The following men have already been enrolled in the Gas Hounds Regiment: Paul Dineen, 25 Oliver street; Daniel Murphy, 56 Arlington street; Hugh Thomas, 10 West Meadow road; Allen Huntley, 28 Smith; Henry Masse, 60 Aiken avenue; Henry Parlin, 200 Branch street; George Lyons, 48 Prospect street; Henry Finerall, 332 West Manchester street; Francis Donoghue, 83 Stromquist street; John Shea, 25 Lawrence street; Charles J. Chisholm, 171 Pawtucket street; George Teed, 154 Cabot street; Joseph Hector, 82 Rock street; William Brown, 23 Bellevue avenue; Thomas Sanders, 13 Washington street; John Lardner, 11 Colwell avenue; Albert McDougall, 637 Broadway; Lewis Monte, no address; Thomas Rogers, Box 17, Greenville, N. H.; Henry C. Carragher, 265 Beacon street; William Dacey, 175 Ardover street; George Spence, 1234 Gorham street; Joseph Steinberg, 46 Tyler street; John Chestnut, 367 Cumberland road; John Cummings, 23 Adams street; Patrick McDonough, 626 Broadway and George Carroll, 644 Broadway.

Gas Hounds' Insignia The Motor Transport Corps which controls the operations, maintenance, engineering and technical supervision of the motorized vehicles of the army, has a new insignia. This corps is now a separate division of the army. The insignia for the officers is an emblem 1-1/4 inches in diameter with an automobile wheel with a pneumatic tire and the service helmet with the wings of Mercury attached. The insignia for the enlisted men is 1-1/4 inch in diameter and is a motor truck wheel with a solid tire. The service helmet is in the center with the wings of Mercury attached. The insignia for the officers is composed of bronze and silver. The enlisted men's insignia is entirely of bronze. The Motor Transport Corps is now arranging to give a certain amount of infantry drill to both the officers and enlisted men, designed to enable the men to enter into the fight at any time this is necessary in the course of their service abroad. Plans are also arranged for the equipment of all the trucks with machine guns so that they will form independent machine gun units in case of need and furthermore will be protected against enemy airplanes which frequently destroy trucks by dropping bombs.

The Motor Transport Corps is greatly in need of both enlisted men and officers. This division of the army, which is new, will require from 200,000 to 250,000 men within the next year with proportionate number of officers. Opportunities for promotion are considered excellent because of the expected growth of the division. Preference for service in the Motor Transport Corps can be stated in questionnaires filled in by men eligible for the draft and those in deferred classifications may ask to be inducted in the corps for service. In either case the recruit can also make application to enter an officers' training camp.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

POSTMASTER AUTHORIZED TO FILE

AFFIDAVITS WITH LOCAL

EXEMPTION BOARDS

Postmaster Meehan stated today that owing to the scarcity of men at the present time the war department has notified him that in the future he is authorized to file affidavits with the local exemption boards for the purpose of securing deferred classification for postoffice clerks and city letter carriers whose services cannot be dispensed with without materially lowering the efficiency of the service.

As the local force has been already depleted to a large extent, by the induction of many of the members into the service, the postmaster states that it will probably be necessary for him to use this means to keep the remainder of his staff working for the government in their present positions.

APPOINTMENT OF DISTRICT SUPERVISOR FOR CHILDREN'S MEDICAL

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE

Mayor Perry D. Thompson, chairman of the Lowell public safety committee, received a letter from Henry B. Endicott, chairman of the Massachusetts public safety committee, today announcing the appointment of Miss Flora E. Burton as district supervisor for the children's medical social service committee in this district. The committee has been only recently organized, its birth coming about as a result of the influenza epidemic. Many children throughout the state have been left orphans as a result of the disease, while others are in need of assistance because of the family breadwinner being afflicted by the epidemic.

Local boards of health and charity departments are supposed to notify the supervisor in their district when their attention is called to a particularly pitiable case and the supervisor will investigate and see that necessary assistance is given.

The state has been divided into eight districts and Lowell is included in District 4. Miss Burton's office will be in Boston. The general supervisor in this state is Miss Edith M. Burley.

STAND BY THE PRESIDENT

We do not see so very much justification for that outburst of indignation by the republican leaders in congress in conjunction with Simon D. Fess, chairman of the republican congressional committee. These gentlemen do not give the president credit for honesty of statement when he says that what he desires is not party ascendancy for political or partisan reasons but for the unity of action that is so important in this juncture in the progress of the war. President Wilson is a great believer in united effort. He, it was, who secured the unity of command in the allied battlefronts; and now after he has had several diplomatic exchanges with the Germans, he wishes the citizenship of the nation to show some solidarity in support of his leadership.

There can be no gainsaying the fact that the election of a democratic majority in the coming election will look like an endorsement of the president's course in directing the war and in driving a diplomatic wedge between the German people and their military masters. It would indeed be a serious reflection upon the president whose leadership is so highly praised by the allied powers, if the people of this nation on November 5 should administer a rebuke in the form of a republican majority in congress.

In spite of all these republican leaders say in their excitement, the president's position is fully justified and nothing except the active political work of an underhand kind by the republican politicians could have moved the president to issue such an appeal.

"Uncle Dudley" of the Boston Globe is one of the most level headed editors in this country and in everything he writes he is strictly nonpartisan. Speaking in justification of the president's appeal he said:

"The entente peoples look to him for leadership in making a liberal and lasting peace. If they see him repudiated at the polls they cannot but wonder whether popular opinion in the United States is indeed in sympathy with his liberal policies. For the success of his program he must depend quite as much on the consent of the entente peoples as on that of his own. To weaken him at home is to weaken him abroad. It is to weaken, in fact, the whole moral unity of the allies. So close-knit has the world become that an American election is of vital international influence."

That is plain language but forcible and truthful.

European peoples give much attention to the strength of opposition parties as indicating the extent to which the existing administrations represent popular sentiment. At the present time therefore, it is of the utmost importance that there shall be no split in the popular support of President Wilson's stand in the war.

This claim that republicans cast more votes for democratic measures than did the democrats is all nonsense. It is true that on certain measures some stages of which were finally passed, there was considerable confusion, and party lines were very largely disregarded; but it has been very noticeable also that republicans have fought the administration on most of the war measures until they saw that the bills would be passed over their opposition. Then they turned over and voted for them so as to go on record as supporting the war measures. Similarly, they kept up their criticism until near election, when they became silent and rushed to cover. Latterly they have been doing their utmost to secure a republican congress. Col. Roosevelt and Mr. Fess have been specially outspoken on this matter and this fact was undoubtedly responsible for the issuance of the president's appeal for united action.

In view of the whole situation, therefore, it is important to comply with the president's request. Give him whatever endorsement there may be in a majority of his own party. That does not as the republican leaders assert, call for the election of Henry Ford who is not a democrat.

FIGHTING THE EPIDEMIC

The report of the board of health on the influenza epidemic shows that the work done by the various agencies under the direction of the board was of the most elaborate and far reaching kind. Indeed we doubt whether in any other city of the country a more complete canvass was made for the relief of those suffering from disease or more effective measures taken to stop the spread of the epidemic. Particularly remarkable was the survey made by the public school teachers who made a canvass of the entire city, going from door to door and securing a complete census of those who had been sick, those sick at the time of their visit and those who had died from the effects of the influenza. The teachers in performing this duty had to take a great many risks of catching the disease; but they went about it in a courageous manner, although with due precaution for their own safety. It is gratifying to know that thus far none of them has been reported ill as a result of their canvass. Another feature, practically unprecedented in our city, was the appearance of 87 sisters from the various parochial schools who visited over 3000 households where they did everything possible for the relief of the influenza patients. The good sisters as usual braved every danger and performed their work in a most self-sacrificing manner. The Lowell Guild which was the headquarters for the relief work, with ten nurses employed, cared for 1233 cases and made 5000 visits while the League of Catholic Women rendered aid to 652 households and 1093 individuals.

There can be no doubt whatever that but for the splendid work of these various agencies, the mortality resulting from the epidemic would have been very much greater. The generous gift of $1000 from Cardinal O'Connell and his instruction to the sisters of the various parochial schools to assist in the work, was highly appreciated and showed the regard of His Eminence for the welfare of his native city.

While the board of health was criticized for the drastic measures adopted in closing stores, theatres, schools and churches, it is doubtful if any more lenient method would have accomplished the desired results.

OUR EVENING SCHOOLS

The opening of the evening schools of all grades including the vocational schools is a matter of importance to those who have had to go to work from the grammar schools and to those others who, having gone to work, may wish to improve their education along mechanical lines such as those provided for in the vocational schools.

Many foreigners who know little or nothing of the English language have a great opportunity offered them in the elementary schools. The city is willing to furnish instruction to such foreigners free of charge and it is for their own benefit as well as that of the city, that they should attend these schools and embrace the offer of gaining even a slight knowledge of English.

During the epidemic which is now happily on the wane, many of the worst sufferers were those who could not speak English. Their ignorance of English did not bring on the disease but it was a great handicap in preventing them from availing themselves of the various relief agencies or even in calling a doctor in due time when the attack of the influenza came on.

At the vocational school there are classes in which young men can learn the rudiments of carpentry, machine shop practice, automobile repairing and other arts. For girls and women there are classes in dressmaking and domestic science which should be well attended. These schools are maintained under the direction and largely at the expense of the state. Such advantages when offered gratis are liable to be undervalued but the young people of the present day should remember that they are specially favored in having such schools available. If they fail to embrace the opportunity for advancement thus offered, the fault will rest with themselves.

As a result of the war many young people who would have gone back to the high school have remained at work under the lure of high wages. They have an opportunity to make up for the loss of a high school course by attending the evening high school.

STAFFORD'S RECORD

There is one William Henry Stafford, representing the 5th Wisconsin (Milwaukee) district in congress.

He is a republican and hopes for re-election on November 5. Since America arrayed herself with the forces of good on the battlefields "over there" this precious specimen of anti-American congressman has heaped up a war record as rotten as was possible for him to achieve. Consistently his voice and his vote have been thrown into the scales for Bill Ithenszollern and against Woodrow Wilson.

Indeed, Bill Stafford's war record is so bad that decent republicans of Milwaukee are now combining with the democrats to defeat him and to send a real American to the national house of representatives.

Here is Stafford's war record: He voted against the resolution for the arming of merchantmen; he voted in favor of the Cooper amendment to this bill; voted against the declaration of war against Germany; voted present on the soldiers' insurance bill; voted for the war revenue bill; voted against the Kahn amendment to strike out the volunteer amendment in the selective service act; and voted for the selective service act on final passage; voted for the espionage act; voted for the resolution declaring war against Austria; voted against nation-wide prohibition amendment; voted against woman suffrage amendment; voted for railroad control bill.

Before war started, Stafford voted against the motion to table the McLenore resolution. Stafford's latest exhibition of anti-Americanism and pro-Germanism was to stand singlehanded and alone among all the representatives in congress in opposition to the war mothers' bill.

One way to fight these high prices now bidding fair to engulf some of us, in the matter of articles of food, would be to reduce our personal consumption of this 60 cents a pound butter, $1 a dozen eggs and 50 cents a dozen bananas, to the minimum if not indeed to banning them "completely." These are things that absolutely must be sold, you know, and when distribution slows up, the tendency is for the price to fall.

Green Bay, Wis., people rubbed their eyes the other morning and could hardly believe what they saw when Mrs. Cecily Beaumont was seen going from store to store stopping long enough to bring forth rags and polish and industriously do a good job of polishing the ice lights. Wisconsin has not voted suffrage to women yet but Mrs. Beaumont may offer another argument why she should.

It must be that one way to go bear hunting, according to news from Ellsworth, Me., is to get a job driving the stage between Great Pond and Ellsworth. On a recent trip Adelbert Crosby, the stage driver, reports that making a turn in the road, five big and little bears confronted him. Both man and bears were mutually surprised, but Adelbert drew forth his trusty rifle and succeeded in killing one little bear.

It seems to be a rare week when Henry B. Endicott, food administrator of Massachusetts, does not satisfactorily settle some labor trouble. The Boston Consolidated Gas company and some of its workers let Henry decide the merits of a wage increase dispute and are apparently satisfied. Some of us wonder just what that State Board of Arbitration is supposed to be doing, if anything in these war times when everybody is supposed to work or fight.

England this year is reputed to have 16,775,000 sheep, four per cent more than last year and with so many sheep hanging all around there is plenty of example and excuse for pretty English girls to make "sheep's eyes" at stalwart American bluejackets and boys in khaki passing through. Isn't there?

Perhaps the business men of Vergennes, Vt., will still continue to tell visitors and persons they encounter in their outside travels that Vergennes, as a community, has a lot of live wires but this assertion can be discounted if you will remind the Vergennes you understand the Western Union has continued doing business in Vergennes.

The Rev. William Van Allen of the Church of the Advent, Boston, lays almost the sole blame and responsibility for this gripe epidemic to human greed and intimates it is sent as a punishment for wickedness committed. Judging by the punishment, human greed must be pretty rank.

One headline says the Germans will sacrifice the Kaiser to secure peace. It is supposed they would be willing to sacrifice pretty nearly anything to secure peace, and now they may not regard the loss of the Kaiser as sacrificing much. Good riddance we should say.

A Pittsfield paper says that one of the city's young men who is reputed to wear a gauze mask when he calls on his girl, is not wearing the badge of courage. True indeed but you live longer if you will stand the humiliation of wearing the badge of caution.

In reply to the question, agent a new Hoover regulation, as to whether liver-and-bacon is one meat or two, we'll observe that we regard liver as a substitute for meat and bacon an usher for good fried eggs.

SEEN AND HEARD

New Zealand's death rate is less than one per cent. What we want is not a lower death rate but a lower living rate!

A megaphone and fan have been combined in a new novelty. Were baseball in season, we could visualize this combination.

The Americans back up the poilus in their Argonne drive. Fritz may well do some backing up when the Yank gets his back "up."

The German notes not only had nothing to say, but said it poorly. Even the crown prince, however, could understand Wilson's notes.

The British commons admits women but, unfortunately, there is no imminent danger of women sitting in the United States senate. It would be no fit place for women without fundamental changes in senatorial courtesy.

It would buck us all up for the winter war hardships if we could have unequivocal assurance that one of the "details" of the peace settlement will be drastic punishment for every responsible German criminal.

One Little Hour

One little hour of birth
And the wail of a welcome cry.
And a hush to rest on a warm, white breast.
And a light in a loving eye
Forthright wonder at all the earth:
One little hour of life.

One little hour of life,
Multiplied by a thousand-fold,
And the hopes and fears and the joys and tears.
And the struggle for bread and gold.
One long wonder at all the strife;
One little hour of life.

One little hour of death
And a smile for the final test.
And the sweep and scope of a faith or hope.
And the peace of a long, long rest.
And the wonder dumb for the lack of breath:
One little hour of death.

Daily Health Talks

Where Most Sickness Begins and Ends

BY FRANKLIN DUANE, M. D.

It can be said broadly that most human ills begin in the stomach and end in the stomach. Good digestion means good health, and poor digestion means bad health. The minute your stomach fails to properly dispose of the food you eat, troubles begin to crop out on various forms. Indigestion and dyspepsia are the commonest forms, but thin, impure blood, headaches, backaches, pimples, blotches, dizziness, belching, coated tongue, weakness, poor appetite, sleeplessness, coughs, colds and bronchitis are almost as common. There is but one way to have good health, and that is to put and keep your stomach in good order. This is easy to do if you take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a wonderful tonic and blood purifier, and is so safe to take, for it is made of roots and herbs. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., stands behind this standard medicine, and it is good to know that so distinguished a physician is proud to have his name identified with it. When you take Golden Medical Discovery, you are getting the benefit of the experience of a doctor whose reputation goes all around the earth. Still more, you get a temperance medicine that contains not a drop of alcohol or narcotic of any kind. Long ago Dr. Pierce combined certain valuable vegetable ingredients—without the use of alcohol—so that these remedies always have been strictly temperance medicines.

If piles are torturing you, get and use Pierce's Anodyne Pile Ointment. The quick relief it gives is hard to believe until you try it. If constipated, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pilelets should be taken while using Anodyne Pile Ointment. Few indeed are the cases which these splendid remedies will not relieve and usually overcome. They are so good that nearly every drug store has them for sale.—Adv.

I remembered a story he used to tell about a chap who asked a man:

"Have you ever heard anything about a machine for telling when a man is lying?"

"Sure," said the man.

"Have you ever seen one?" said the chap.

"Seen one?" said the man. "By gosh, I married one."

"Struggled through your Jazz literature the other evening on 'Bad Luck'."

I was a student of superstition, and called it quits with this episode—
One noon in a crowded counter lunch room, I upset the salt shaker.

To the superstitious that is a sign of mixing in a light, I spilled a portion of the spilled salt is thrown over the left shoulder. Not wishing to engage in any flimsy encounter, I immediately took a goodly pinch and tossed it over my respective left shoulder into the countenance of a husky man behind me, and he tossed a cruel hard fist on my cranium in return!

New Way to Pay an Old Debt

"I am a mild man," said the visitor, taking a firmer hold on the stick he carried, "but unless I get some money to soothe my feelings there'll be trouble!"

"Was the boy bitten so very badly by my dog?" inquired the dog's owner.

"He was bitten exactly $50 worth, sir."

"I hope your boy will soon get well," remarked the dog's owner as he paid over the money.

"He isn't my boy," said the man preparing to depart.

"What?"
"He's the son of a friend of mine, who owes me $50 and as he couldn't pay he turned his son's bite over to me to see if I could collect that. I have done so. If ever you or any of your family get bitten by a dog just come to me and I'll collect the damage for you on 25 per cent. commission. Good day!"—Rebooth Sunday Herald.

Street Car Gallantry

A gallant but awkward young man, making his way through a crowded street car a few nights ago, his arms laden with parcels, accidentally jostled a woman. He stopped to beg her pardon.

As he bowed a parcel fell from his arms and dropped on the woman's foot. He stooped to pick up the package and the rim of his hat bumped her nose. He took off his hat and tried again.

This time his head hit the broad brim of the woman's hat, tilting it south-by-southeast. She stepped backward, lost her balance, and fell into the lap of an elderly man.

The gallant but awkward young man reached out a hand to assist her, caught a filmy sleeve and tore it.

"Better let her remain here, young man," remarked the elderly man kindly. "I'll take care of her until you get off the car."—Philadelphia North American.

Negro Yanks

I have just been chatting with one of our American Y.M.C.A. secretaries, who is a real expert on the subject of the American negroes in the war. Edward B. Schumacher is from the south, and he has mingled among them familiarly on both sides of the ocean and heard their often exceedingly humorous comments.

They asked one man if he had been inoculated. This was his answer: "I've been assassinated (vaccinated). I've done had de celluloid (variolooid); and now dey tells me I'm a mule (immune)."

Another negro said: "I wants to claim 'ceptions.' 'Exceptions! Exemption you mean," answered the officer. "Yes, boss, dat's it—exemptions." "Well, have you any dependents?" "Yes, boss." "Who?" "De butcher, de grocer and de saloon keeper."

A negro officer was having a desperate time getting his men to turn and march in the right direction.

Finally he called out in accents of anguish, "It's a mighty good thing you all is goin' in de cavalry. De horse'll know which way to turn when you don't!"

"Niggah!" said a captain to an exceptionally stupid though pathetically earnest and willing private, "you is suttinly de biggest bonehead I has evah seen in all mah 'perience. I see done told you all I know an' you doan know nothin'!"

Another man approached the desk at a recruiting station and said, "Say, boss I want to enlist."

"In what?"

"I wants in de infantry."

"Well, this is de navy. Don't you want to enlist in de navy?"

"No, sah! By no means! When I see in de infantry big shell busts, and dere I is. When I see on a ship big shell busts, and den where is I?"

"Goin' to enlist?" a negro asked a friend.

"Yes, indeed?"

"Whaffor?"

"Infantry."

"How about aviation corps?"

"What's dat?"

"Flyin'."

"No, sah! Nothin' deint! Not for me, nohow!"

"Why not, niggah?"

"Why not? Lemme tell you—all why not. You get in one o' dem machines what has a body like a fish, wing like a butterfly, an engine on its nose. Two holes, one fer de shover (chauffeur), one fer de captain. You goes up 'bout three miles, goin' like de dehhil. Den de motor stalls. Den de captain he say to you, 'Bud, you get out and crank dat motor!'—Paris Letter in London Mail.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

While walking across Centralville bridge Saturday noon, I noticed two apparently good life preservers floating on the surface of the water. I haven't any idea where they came from or how they came to be floating in the water. It struck me that it was a good time for them to be there because the traffic across the bridge Saturday afternoon is very heavy. Why I say this is because I know, that often times a would-be suicide changes his mind after he touches the water. I haven't seen as long a bridge as the Centralville bridge unprovided with life preservers, in a long time. Lowell does not seem to be in the throes of any suicide epidemic and I have no idea that it will be, but I believe a bridge like that ought to be equipped with life preservers for a lifesaver is somewhat like a revolver—you may not need it but once in a hundred years, but when you do need it, you need it badly.

I have been wondering if I would see any outbound hunters in Lowell streets this fall and, so far, I can report having seen but one, a red headed youth over in Centralville last Saturday. He had the regulation khaki hunter's coat stuffed with shells, a pipe and a single barreled shot gun. He had no dog. If I were going hunting and had no dog and only a single barreled shot gun, I would expect that I must be a mighty fine shot and the game plenty and sluggish acting in order that I bring home any stew meat. I presume one of the reasons Lowell men do not go hunting as much as formerly is because wages are too attractively high to afford the time being spent in hunting and, of course, there is a severe penalty in this state for persons caught hunting on Sunday.

I am glad to note that most of the posters and signs advertising the Fighting Fourth Liberty loan have disappeared. It was the wish and desire of Secretary McAdoo, that on the Monday following the United States having done its duty and subscribed this huge sum, all trace of the campaign necessary to solicit it, should disappear. Some of the banks and one or two restaurants still have the posters up, but that is all. Before I forget it I want to announce that for once (and for about the only time) I made good as a prophet in saying that I believed the Washington Institution for Savings, Middlesex street, would get a total of 1200 names on its rolls of honor. There are three of these rolls in the windows, and I note more than 1200 persons bought bonds through this bank.

I hear quite a bit of grumbling and growling on the part of a number of members of the Lowell companies of the state guard because there is good prospect that they will, within a short time, don their uniforms and go to Lawrence to police and staff the influenza hospital down there. I rather expected there would be some kicking on the order to go to Lawrence. It is one thing to wear one's military spangles in one's home town, but an entirely different thing sometimes to have to rush around a military hospital attired in those self same spangles doing some necessary but often times disagreeable duties. In the case of Lawrence there is probably more ground for kicking about going and doing her nursing than there would be for any other city or town in the state and the reason for it is that Lawrence has kept her saloons and show shops open constantly all through the epidemic. Liquor ruled in normal times, she apparently wanted her liquor unrestrainedly when a pestilence stalked through her community. I believe I were a state guardsman I would feel somewhat sore about going to Lawrence myself.

Times are not particularly prosperous with Lowell jewelers. I understand, Money spent for Thrift Stamp bonds cannot, of course, be spent for jewelry, no matter how meritorious in value. I understand a clerk in jewelry store stands a poor show, being exempted from the draft. Selling gew gaws is not an essential industry, although possibly at times, a delightful one. On this account many salesmen in jewelry shops become increasingly scarce. Their places have to be taken by women and proprietors tell me women do not make as good salespeople as men, women would rather talk jewelry with a male clerk. Added to this the fuel administration is grudging both in the matter of letting jewelry shops have light for window displays and fuel for heating purposes. In this respect the jewelers, of course are no worse off than some other stores.

News of the Churches

Catholic churches resumed their usual services yesterday with the regular schedule of masses and evening services. There were fairly large congregations at all the masses. A long list of announcements and precaution against any lurking symptoms of the influenza precluded extended sermons and in most instances, merely the gospel was read.

The united war work campaign which is to be conducted the week of Nov. 11 was discussed at all the masses and in some cases it was announced that a representative working body from each parish had been chosen to co-operate with the general campaign committee for this city.

The annual collection for the diocesan charities which was to have been taken up several weeks ago will be taken up at all the masses next Sunday.

The October devotions were resumed last evening and will continue every evening this week through Thursday. Next Friday, the first Friday of the month, will also be the feast of All Saints, a holy day of obligation. Masses will be held on the usual holy day hours. Saturday will be All Souls day and will be a day of devotion. Confessions will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoon and evening.

Right Rev. William O'Brien, P. R., pastor of St. Patrick's church, announced that the parochial schools in that parish would not open until Wednesday, so that the Sisters who have been giving aid in the epidemic might have a few days to recuperate. The other parochial schools opened this morning.

St. Patrick's
Rev. James J. Kerrigan celebrated the 8:30 o'clock mass at St. Patrick's church yesterday and the members of the Junior Holy Name society received communion in a body. Rev. Joseph A. Curtin celebrated the 11 o'clock mass and also made the announcements. Monsignor O'Brien, the pastor, celebrated the 7 o'clock mass. Masses on Friday will be at 5, 7 and 9 o'clock. On Saturday there will be a mass at 6:30 and a solemn high mass at 8 o'clock.

Immaculate Conception
The usual masses were celebrated at the Immaculate Conception church yesterday. Friday's masses will be at 5:15, 6:30, 8 and 9 o'clock and on Saturday at 5:15, 6:30 and 8 o'clock. Members of the T.M.C.I. will hold their quarterly communion next Sunday. Tomorrow evening the organization will hold a concert and dancing party at their Stockpole street hall.

St. Peter's
Rev. Daniel J. Keleher, Ph. D., the pastor, celebrated the 7:30 o'clock mass at St. Peter's church yesterday and the members of the Girls' sodality received communion in a body. Rev. Peter Linehan assisted in giving communion. Rev. Daniel J. Heffernan celebrated the late mass at 11 o'clock and the pastor made the announcements. October devotions will be held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 7:30, on Thursday evening at 7 and services will be held on Friday and Saturday evenings at 7. Masses on Friday will be at 5, 7, 8 and 9 o'clock and on Saturday at 5, 7 and 9 o'clock. Members of the Immaculate Conception sodality will receive communion next Sunday in a body.

St. Michael's
The usual schedule of masses was carried out at St. Michael's church yesterday. The parish school re-opened this morning. Friday's masses will be at 5, 6, 7 and 8:30 o'clock and evening services will be at 7:30. Saturday's masses will be at the same hours. Confessions will be heard Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoon and evening.

Sacred Heart
Rev. William Mahan, O.M.I., celebrated the 7:30 o'clock mass at the Sacred Heart church yesterday and members of the Children of Mary sodality received communion. Rev. John P. Flynn, O.M.I., the pastor, assisted in giving communion. Very Rev. T. Wade Smith, O.M.I., celebrated the late mass. Masses on Friday and Saturday will be at 5, 6, 7 and 8 o'clock. A sermon on "All Souls" will be delivered Thursday evening.

St. Columba's
The usual masses were celebrated at St. Columba's church yesterday. Masses on Friday and Saturday will be at 5 and 7 o'clock. Confessions will be heard Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoon and evening.

St. Margaret's
The customary schedule of masses was carried out at St. Margaret's church yesterday. A meeting of the members of the parish interested in the coming reunion on Nov. 21 will be held later in the week.

St. Joseph's
Members of St. Anne's society received communion in a body at the early mass at St. Joseph's church yesterday and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon held a meeting with their spiritual director, Rev. Eugene Turcotte, in charge. The regular communion and meeting of the Sacred Heart league which was scheduled for yesterday has been postponed.

St. Louis
The Sacred Heart league held its regular meeting at the early mass at St. Louis church yesterday with the pastor, Rev. F. N. Gauthier, in charge. A special meeting of the members of the parish was held in the afternoon in the parish hall for the purpose of making arrangements for the war work campaign to be conducted next month. Arthur Gaudette was elected president of the parish committee and Miss Eva Dupuis secretary. It is expected that the workers in the recent French orphanage campaign will volunteer for the new drive.

Notre Dame de Lourdes
The usual schedule of masses was carried out in this parish yesterday.

St. Anne's
Members of St. Anne's sodality received communion in a body at the early mass at St. Marie's church yesterday. Rev. Julian Racette, O.M.I., was in charge.

Calvary Baptist
Rev. A. R. Ditts preached at both services at the Calvary Baptist church yesterday. The topic for the morning service was, "The Law of the Harvest," and in the evening, "Optimism." The superintendent's council will meet Tuesday evening.

Fifth Street Baptist
There was an excellent attendance in all the various departments of the Fifth Street Baptist church yesterday. The pastor, Rev. G. B. Marston, preached in the morning on the subject, "After the Epidemic What?" The topic for the evening service was, "Those Who Did and Those Who Did Not."

First Baptist
"A Friend in These Times of Trouble," was the subject discussed by Rev. A. C. Archibald at the First Baptist church yesterday. The Sunday school and young people's societies resumed activities. In the evening the pastor took for the topic of his sermon, "Has God Anything to do With the Epidemic?" The Men of the Round Table will hold their annual fall rally on Wednesday and the speaker for the evening will be Mr. J. T. Ullom, who has recently returned from the battle front.

Pulse Street Baptist
Rev. Earl T. Pavro conducted both services at the Pulse Street Baptist church yesterday, preaching in the morning from the text, "Feeding on Ashes." There were two more blue stars added to the service flag and one changed to a gold star. Mr. Bonney conducted the musical program for the day, as leader of the choir.

Worthington Street Baptist
"Patriotism, Church Going and Religion" was the topic discussed yesterday morning at the Worthington Street Baptist church. Rev. Walter A. Woodbury conducted both services and was pleased to have such good attendances under the prevailing circumstances. He spoke in the evening on "Two Great Armies and Their Supporters."

Christian Science
The regular meetings were held at both Christian Science churches yesterday. The subject under discussion was "Probation After Death." Testimonial meeting Wednesday at 7:45 p. m.

Elliot Congregational
"Hope and Wait," was the topic for the morning service at the Elliot Congregational church, with preaching by the pastor, Rev. Herbert A. Barker. Next Sunday morning Rally Day exercises will be held.

First Congregational
Rev. Chauncey J. Hawkins, the new pastor of the First Congregational church, conducted both services at the church yesterday, taking for his topic in the morning, "The Christianity Needed Today." Miss Jessie French, contralto soloist, and the quartet furnished a special musical program. The subject for the evening service was, "What Has Become of the Kaiser's God?"

Kirk Street Congregational
The pastor of the Kirk Street Congregational church, Rev. William E. English, Jr., is expected soon to be fully recovered from the attack of grip, and will supply the pulpit next Sunday. At the service yesterday morning Rev. George M. Ward, D.D., took his text from John 4:23, "But the hour cometh and now is when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth; for the Father seeketh such to worship Him." He dwelt on the question which is often put to him as to why God does not interfere with the war, emphasizing the point that people must realize that God's kingdom is a spiritual one and that it has never yet dominated or ruled the world in connection with the affairs of men, and said, "You cannot

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF
Better Than ALL OTHER
PAIN REMEDIES

A LETTER from Dr. Shapson of the Anderson Zouaves, N. Y. (62d Regt.), says:
"During the time our regiment was stationed on Riker's Island we were out of medical stores. I obtained some of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF and used it with greater success in the treatment of Bowel Complaint, Colds, Rheumatism, Chills, Pains, Aches and Soreness of the limbs than all other remedial agents."
This letter was also approved by Col. Riker, Lieut. Col. Tisdale and Gen. Oscar V. Dayton of the same regiment.

Pawtucket Congregational
"Transforming Hope," was the subject for the sermon yesterday morning at the Pawtucket Congregational church, the pastor, Rev. A. G. Lyon, conducting both services. Rally day was observed in the Sunday school, when there were interesting exhibits of war relics sent by men connected with the church who are now in service. Two large maps were on display and with the photographs of the different men, their present locations were traced on these maps. "Christian Discipline" was the topic for the evening service.

St. Anne's Episcopal
Rev. Apollon Grannis conducted all the regular services at St. Anne's Episcopal church yesterday, preaching in the morning on "Educational Problem." The Girls' Friendly society meets tonight at 7:30 at the parish house, and the Boy Scouts on Wednesday evening.

St. John's Episcopal
At the holy communion service which was observed yesterday morning at St. John's Episcopal church, the recent suggestion of Bishop Lawrence was followed. Next Sunday, Nov. 3, the Sunday school and evening service will again resume activities.

Jewish Synagogue
The regular services of the Jewish synagogues were resumed on Saturday.

Swedish Lutheran
Rev. Peter E. Nordgren conducted the services at the Swedish Lutheran church yesterday, preaching in the morning on the subject, "Keep Your Lights Burning."

First Swedish Methodist Episcopal
Rev. A. J. Allington conducted the service held yesterday morning at the First Swedish Methodist Episcopal church.

Highland Methodist Episcopal
"Burdens Bearing," was the topic of the sermon yesterday morning at the Highland Methodist Episcopal church, with preaching by the pastor, Rev. R. W. Hutchinson.

First Primitive Methodist
The regular services of the First Primitive Methodist church were resumed yesterday, with a fairly large attendance at all services held. The pastor made no special effort for increased attendance, preferring the natural course under existing conditions. "The Rev. N. W. Matthews preached in the morning on 'Calling Upon God in Trouble,' Psalm 50:15. In the evening his theme was, 'Meditations on Early Years of Ministry,' Deut. 27. With the services of Sunday, Rev. HEALTH AUTHORITIES

In the present epidemic are urging everybody to do two things—gargle throat twice a day and wash hands frequently, especially before eating. They say that the disease is spread by the breath and secretions of the body, especially the nose and throat. Hands are constantly exposed and it is surprising how often they are put to the mouth and other parts of the face. For this reason, wash with Lifebuoy Health Soap. Special, 3 Cakes for 20¢

DRUGGISTS!! PLEASE NOTE
VICK'S VAPORUB OVERSOLD
DUE TO PRESENT EPIDEMIC

Tremendous Demand Last Few Days Has Wiped Out Excess Stocks. That We Had Estimated Would Last Until Next January. Last Week's Orders Called for One and Three Quarter Million Jars—Today's Orders Alone Amount to 932,459 Jars

Big Shipments Are En Route to Jobbers. Until These Arrive There May Be a Temporary Shortage. All Deals Postponed—Buy in Small Lots Only

RETAILERS CAN GET IMMEDIATE SHIPMENTS DIRECT BY PARCEL POST

This advertisement is written on Monday, October 28th. It is directed to the attention of all distributors of Vick's Vaporub, both wholesale and retail. In an emergency such as the present epidemic—our duty—and your duty is to distribute Vaporub in the quickest possible manner to those sections stricken by influenza. We, therefore, call your careful attention to the following:

DANGER OF SHORTAGE IF SUPPLY IS NOT CONSERVED

On October 1st, we had on hand at our factory and in twenty warehouses scattered over the country, sufficient Vaporub to last us, we thought, until January 1st, to insure jobbers a 50 per cent. increase over last year's sales, and not counting our daily output. This big excess stock had been accumulated during the summer months. Then this epidemic of Spanish influenza hit us—and in the last 10 days this stock was vanishing. First we thought this tremendous demand would last only a few days, but the orders have run:

Wed. Oct. 16—13,501 doz.
Thurs. Oct. 17—25,234 doz.
Fri. Oct. 18—25,234 doz.
Sat. Oct. 19—25,234 doz.
Mon. Oct. 21—25,234 doz.

Up to Saturday, October 19th, we have actually shipped for this month $400,254.10, or over two million pairs of Vaporub.

THE PROBLEM NOW IS TO DIS-TRIBUTE VAPORUB QUICKLY

Most of this tremendous quantity is still on route to the jobbers, but freight and express are both congested nowadays, and it may be some time before this supply reaches the jobbers. In the meantime, therefore, it is necessary that we distribute as widely as possible the stock that we are manufacturing daily, together with that now on the jobbers' and retailers' shelves, in order that it may get to the influenza stricken quickly. Our normal output is about 4,000 dozen per day. We are putting on a night shift, but it will be a little while before that is producing.

WHAT WE ASK THE WHOLESALE DRUGGIST TO DO

Last Saturday we notified all of our jobbers, by Special Delivery, as follows:

1. Check and quantity shipments of all kinds are cancelled. Fill in quantity orders of any kind, whether taken by our salesmen or by your own. Sell in small lots only.

BOVININE
for Strength

FOR children, especially in the nutritional disorders of childhood, BOVININE is exceptionally valuable. It combines the administration of iron with a non-irritating and concentrated form of nourishment.

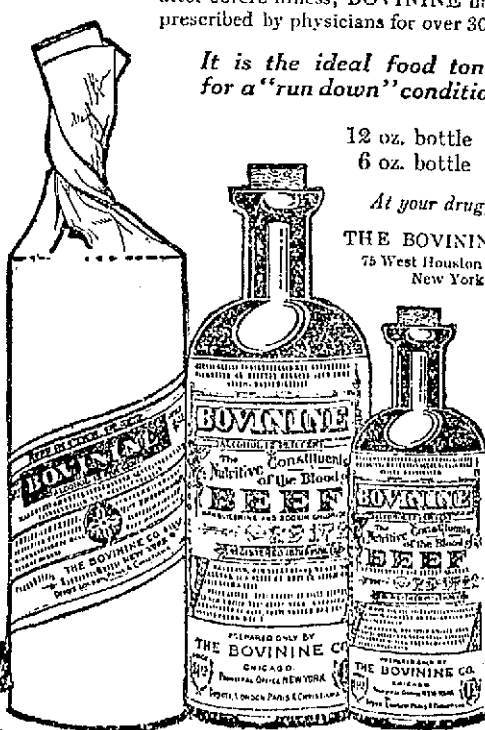

BOVININE contains the substances in normal blood serum which combat bacterial infection, having the vital elements of beef blood unaltered by the destructive action of heat.

For anaemic children and adults and for the building up and invigorating of invalids convalescing after severe illness, BOVININE has been prescribed by physicians for over 30 years.

It is the ideal food tonic for a "run down" condition

SOLDIERS FIRED ON AT ROAD HOUSE

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Oct. 28.—Lieut. Hannibal Hamlin and a detachment of provost guard men from Camp Devens forced their way into a roadhouse in Cumberland early yesterday and captured 35 men and nine women who had refused to give themselves up. The occupants of the house had fired upon the soldiers and had held deputies from the United States Marshall's office in Providence and members of the New England Watch and Ward society at bay for more than an hour.

Lieut. Hamlin arrived with his detachment while the inmates were firing upon the federal officers and Watch and Ward agents, who had taken cover behind automobiles and trees. He demanded in the name of the president of the United States that all in the house surrender. The response was another volley from the roadhouse windows.

Lieut. Hamlin ordered his men to surround the house. He went to a window, smashed the blinds off and broke the glass. Pushing his revolver into the room, he repeated his demand. The inmates, who had gone upstairs, refused to come out.

The soldiers then rushed the house, smashing in the front door. They went through the rooms, covering men and women with revolvers. Evidently frightened by the quick action, the inmates made no further resistance. Lieut. Hamlin seized a man who was holding a shotgun and turned him over to the deputy marshal.

Several men in uniform were included among the prisoners. A double line of federal officers, agents of the Watch and Ward society and military police was drawn up in the road outside the house and the prisoners marched out, their hands held above their heads. The light of automobiles were turned on the line so that none of the prisoners could escape in the darkness.

Rev. J. Francis Chase of Boston, president of the Watch and Ward society, said that the procession of prisoners, with women crying and screaming and men in uniform looking dejected, was a pitiable sight. It was upon evidence furnished by Mr. Chase that the raid was undertaken.

Two women in the house who were found to be seriously ill from influenza were removed to a hospital in this city. Lieut. Hamlin declared that the sanitary conditions in the house were deplorable.

All of the prisoners will appear in the federal court in Providence today, charged with resisting arrest and firing upon soldiers of the United States. The law provides for a maximum penalty of 20 years' imprisonment for persons found guilty of these charges.

Before the raid six deputy marshals

had entered a house on Diamond Hill, this city, seeking violators of the Mann act. Thirty men and seven women were questioned, but no arrests were made.

Mr. Chase said last night that the raids were the first of a series to be conducted until every house of the sort in New England is closed.

LEGAL ADVISORY BOARD

The daily sessions of the legal advisory board which were discontinued a few weeks ago by reason of the epidemic have been resumed, and beginning today the board will meet every day except Sunday at the city hall, from 1 to 9 o'clock, during the period of mailing questionnaires. There is no charge for this service, any anyone wishing advice on the proper filling out of their questionnaires will find here the necessary assistance.

NOTED AMERICAN AVIATOR MISSING

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY
NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Sunday,
Oct. 27.—(By the Associated Press.)—

Lieut. Frank Luke of Phoenix, Ariz., one of the most daring American aviators, has been missing since the night of Oct. 20, when he started out on a bombing expedition.

LANGFORD AND JOHNSON TO MEET HERE FRIDAY

With the ban officially lifted definite plans for the resumption of the weekly meetings of the Crescent A. A. have been made by the directors, and the club will reopen Friday night. The long lull caused by the order of the health officials gave the management an opportunity to look up many prospects and a very formidable array of "talent" has been added to the list for future "presentation."

When the "lid went on" Sam Langford, of Boston and "Battling Jim" Johnson, of Memphis, Tenn., were training for a bout here. Since that time the giant grapplers have "stuck" around these parts, doing light work in preparation for a match, when the health officials came through with the word. When it was announced last week that the "nothing doing" sign could be taken down and packed away, the grapplers were notified to get down to business, and hence they should be at their best when they clash next Friday night.

Langford and Johnson have met on several occasions, and all their bouts have been tip top performances. They are both big, powerful and very aggressive men, and can always be depended upon to give the fans a run for their assessment. They are scheduled to box 12 rounds. There will be three other good bouts.

POLO LEAGUE TO OPEN ON NOVEMBER 2

The American Roller Polo league will open the season on Saturday evening, Nov. 2.

The circuit will include Lowell, Chelsea, Cambridge, Boston, Providence and Worcester. Lawrence, Lewiston and Portland will be eliminated. The Lowell team will be made up largely of last season's players. Kid Williams will be first rush and Fred Harkins, second rush and manager. At center, Bob Griffith will again appear. Purcell will play goal. The halfback has not been selected yet.

In Boston, Bill Parsons will be the managerial head, with Fred Jean and the other players of last season's Lawrence team as polo purveyors. Games will be played at the Arena, one of the biggest polo surfaces the game has seen in America.

With Boston in the circuit, the league will be much stronger than it was last season. Indications point to great crowds attending the opening games in the Hub. A feature in connection with the new circuit is its compactness. Chelsea, Cambridge and Boston are practically together, and Providence and Worcester are not so very distant, while Lowell is only 26 miles away.

The compactness of the circuit will enable teams to make their home bases at the close of each game, as a general proposition, thus permitting a working schedule of 36 hours per week for the players under the "work or fight" law.

FOOTBALL CHALLENGE
The Blue Devils, a football organization of Manchester, N. H., challenge any Lowell team whose average weight is 115 pounds for a game to be played in this city. One-way fare expenses is the only guarantee the eleven wants. The understanding would be that a return game should be played at Manchester.

CALLS KAISER FILM HERO

Berlin Editor in Bitter Attack

on Hohenzollerns—Started

War With Dirty Trick

LONDON, Oct. 28.—A Copenhagen despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. quotes Maximilian Harden, the editor of the Die Zukunft of Berlin as saying in an interview with the Berlingske Tidende of Copenhagen: "We started the war with a dirty trick and all our subsequent victories have been the results of dishonesty. William II is a film hero and Germany a vulgar cinematograph show. We sit today on the ruins of thirty years of Hohenzollern politics."

FROM THE REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—Chairman George A. Bacon of the republican state committee, issued the following statement last evening:

"The insistence on the part of candidate Walsh that his election to the senate is indispensable to the successful prosecution of the war, would be funny if it were not so pathetic."

"War was declared one year and nine months ago and during that time the President has called upon thousands of the country's leading citizens to assist him. He has consulted with leading men from every state in both parties. But up to date he has not sought the aid of Walsh, or of any other candidate who tried to go to the senate two years ago in place of Senator Lodge as an 'indispensable aid to the president.' John F. Fitzgerald."

"Walsh is within the draft age. His opponent has a son on the firing line in France, with the 101st who has just been made a captain for conspicuous bravery in the field. He said that the first regiment that left for France."

"Young Weeks will not be home to vote for his father on election day. But Walsh is at home telling the citizens of the state that young 'Weeks' father isn't helping to win the war. Where would the war be today if it wasn't for fathers like Weeks?"

"Republican Congressman John Jacob Rogers, of Lowell, has enlisted as a private, former republican Congressman Augustus Peabody Gardner steps in a soldier's grave at Hamilton, and former Lt. Governor Louis A. Frothingham has just accepted a commission to join the fighting forces of his country. These are typical republican leaders."

"But Walsh, without a dependent of any kind, goes bravely up and down the state talking patriotism and assailing a veteran of the Spanish war and the one man whose commanding knowledge of military affairs has been of more value to the country than that of any man in the upper branch of the American congress."

"By the way, where was Walsh during the Spanish war? We know where volunteer Captain John W. Weeks was."

NEW ENGLAND BREEDERS TO TURN OVER CARRIER PIGEONS TO WAR DEPT.

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—Breeder of high grade carrier pigeons in New England today began an inventory of their stock preparatory to turning over several hundred pairs to the war department. New England stock, according to Major Griffin, who came here from Washington, make arrangements for the purchase of the birds, have proven their worth on the western front. Major Griffin in an appeal to breeders, said that 1900 pairs are wanted for immediate shipment overseas. Breeders are excited to make a report tomorrow as to how many pigeons they can turn over to the department.

CHELMSFORD NEWS

The schools of Chelmsford resumed their sessions today, and the normal activities of the town which have been under a cloud for the past month were again in full swing. The local board of health again emphasized the fact that no children from a family in which there is a case of influenza shall be allowed to attend. The legal advisory board for this district will be in session at the town hall on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings this week from 7.30 to 9 o'clock for the purpose of advising registrars of the true meaning and intent of the selective service regulations, and to give any advice necessary to making full and truthful answers to the questionnaires.

A private funeral service for Arthur P. Fletcher was held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. E. Greene, pastor of the Unitarian church. The body was taken to Mt. Auburn for cremation. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Perham.

Walter Perham has received his appointment as chairman of the local United War Work campaign committee, and with this position and aggressive leader, the drive is sure to be successful.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Note—Below is what the press agents of the different theatres say of the current attractions and of others to come later.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

This afternoon the B. F. Keith theatre re-opens after being closed down by reason of the epidemic for four and a half weeks. The new attraction, a performance may be obtained at the box office, the sale having begun at 10 o'clock, this morning, and there is to be a very large sale of seats before, perhaps, have Lowell people so much desired to be entertained. Several weeks devoted purely to the theatre have been a long time in place to go, have left everybody literally hungry for good vaudeville.

Jack Wyatt and his Scotch Lads and Lassies will lead off the show today.

WORK ON GOVERNMENT HOUSES STARTED

The Lowell Housing corporation started work on the homes for the United States government this morning on the Rogers street tract, Belvidere. No lumber or building material had arrived on the lot when about 35 workmen of various kinds started in but the first load arrived about 10:30.

Laborers employed by the Lowell Gas Light Co. were trenching for a gas line this morning. Work was started simultaneously this morning on three cellar foundations. Three two horse scrapers are used on each cellar and there is a constant excavating going on, one pair of horses following another pair, and the dirt for the cellars being carried to a pile in the rear of each individual lot. There is some building stone already on the ground and masons will undoubtedly start work on one or more foundations by Thursday.

The contractor for these buildings is J. E. Toland of Quincy, who is making a big building contract for the United States government at Quincy. His representative on the job here is Mr. Grossman of Lynn.

The cellars will be built partly of stone and partly of concrete. There is a steam shovel now on the "lot" and also a power concrete mixing machine. Toland has six months to finish these homes and he will try for a record here and bustle the work along faster than even the contract calls for. He has a big advantage in today's sun-drying for help and is anxious to favor Lowell's skilled and unskilled workers in every way possible.

The Belvidere tract indeed represented a busy scene this morning with much promise of unprecedented activity to take place in building these houses which are needed so much.

LOWELL MOTORISTS LOSE LICENSES

(Special to The Sun.)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Oct. 28.—The licenses of three Lowell motorists have been revoked by the Massachusetts highway commission, as a result of their being convicted on the charge of operating motor vehicles while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Tyler A. Wotton was convicted in the Methuen court October 17, and paid a fine of $50; Henry Winn was convicted in the Haverhill court October 19, and fined one hundred dollars and appealed; while Frank D. Hookins was convicted in the Lawrence court October 21 and paid a fine of $50.

Licenses Suspended

Edwin G. Morrison, of Lowell, has been notified by the commission that his license has been suspended, pending an investigation of the accident in which he was involved October 18, and which resulted in the death of Gerald Kiah of Lowell. After the investigation has been completed, Morrison will be given an opportunity to appear before the commission to convince its members that the accident occurred without fault on his part, and if successful in this his license will be returned.

Other licenses similarly suspended are those of Catherine Spore, of Lowell, who on October 10 was involved in an accident which resulted in the death of John Lynch, of Nashua, and of Ralph A. Knight, of Billerica, who on October 11 was involved in an accident which resulted in the death of Ora S. Deane of that town.

SPECIMEN BALLOTS FOR STATE ELECTION RECEIVED AT CITY CLERK'S OFFICE

City Clerk Stephen Flynn has sent out approximately 15,000 copies of the 18 amendments passed by the constitutional convention this year, which are to be voted upon at the coming state election.

Specimen ballots for the state election have been received at the city clerk's office and will be distributed within a day or two among the various polling places of the city.

GARD OF THANKS

We, the undersigned, desire to express our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors, also the employees of the United States Cartridge Co., and New England Worsteds Co., who, by their offering of either spiritual or moral tributes, acts of kindness and expressions of condolence, served to lighten the burden of our grief in the death of our beloved wife, daughter and sister, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Gordon, such evidence of true friendship we shall ever cherish in loving remembrance.

TOOK OUT DREADFUL SORENESS

When the kidneys are weakened or overworked so that they fail to filter and throw off impurities out of the blood, the poison remains in the system and backache, soreness, lameness and rheumatic pains are likely to develop. Mrs. David Henry, 55 S. Lincoln Ave., Wadsworth, N.Y., writes: "My kidneys were doing me much good, both my kidneys and the rheumatism. They took all the dreadful soreness out of my limbs. Burlington, Vt., Oct. 15, 1918. Middlesex St., Moody's, 361 Central St.—Adv."

J. M. FARRELL, Auctioneer
OFFICE, 162 MARKET STREET, LOWELL, MASS.

Administrator's Sale of Real Estate

Thursday, Oct. 31, 1918, at 2 P. M.

At No. 53 Woodward Ave., Pawtucketville, Lowell, Mass.

By virtue of a license granted by the Probate Court, I shall sell at public auction the real estate and household furniture of the late Martha L. Aldrich of Lowell, Mass.

The real estate consists of a cottage house of 10 rooms and 9200 sq. feet of land, more or less, with a frontage of 50 feet. The first floor has front hall, parlor, sitting room, dining room, kitchen, pantry, store room and a room finished for a bathroom with toilet. The second floor has six high posted sleeping rooms and sewing room. The house has a good cellar with bulkhead, has city water. The house is piped for gas. Everything is conveniently arranged and substantially built but needs to be repaired and with a little expense will make a comfortable home.

This property is in a good neighborhood, but a few steps from Pawtucketville electric car line, near churches, schools and stores. You have land enough for a large garden. This sale is positive to the highest bidder and if you are looking for a comfortable home, attend this sale.

The household furniture will be sold first, consisting of iron beds and bedding, chamber suits, dressers and commodes, mirrors, curtains, rugs, carpets, parlor and sitting room furniture, extra chairs and rockers, dining room table and chairs, kitchen furnishings, range, gas stove, etc. The furniture will be sold out doors to avoid gathering in the house.

TERMS OF SALE: $200 in cash must be paid to the auctioneer on the real estate as soon as sold. Household furniture cash at the time and place of sale.

Per order, HAROLD A. VARNUM, Administrator.

KINGDOM OF SAXONY Reorganization of Government—All the Ministers Have Resigned

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 28.—As a consequence of the reorganization of the government of the kingdom of Saxony, all the ministers have resigned, according to advices from Dresden.

SCORE OF SURVIVORS FROM SUNKEN SHIP

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—More than a score of survivors from a sunken steamship were landed today at Barnegat, N. J. Authorities here were investigating to learn whether the vessel was torpedoed, struck a mine or was in collision in the heavy fog off the coast.

NEWS OF THE DAY IN THE POLICE COURT

A little clever work on the part of members of the vice squad last evening resulted in the arrest and conviction of five men for gambling on the Lord's day. According to the story told in court this morning by Officer Francis Moore, a man called at the station Saturday evening and complained of losing $50 in a card game in a house in Colburn street. The same party returned last evening and insisted that the house be raided, but it was no easy matter for the arms of the law to reach into the place. The members of the vice squad, however, were sent to the place and after climbing over the roof of a building, they managed to get into the house and the following men were taken to the station on a charge of gambling on the Lord's day: Ernest Delanger, Frank Dugas, Peter Bergeron, Joseph Mercil and Edouard J. Smith.

When arraigned in court this morning the men entered a plea of guilty and after the court was informed that the game was only a friendly one with very little money involved, a fine of $5 was imposed.

Larceny from a Soldier

Nellie Lavigne, a young woman who came here from Nashua a few weeks ago, was arraigned before Judge Enright on a charge of larceny of $15 from Priv. Harry J. Lamb of Camp Devens. The young man informed the court that Saturday he met the Lavigne woman in a local restaurant and then took an automobile ride to a house in North Chelmsford. He claimed that it was while he was in the house that the woman relieved him of his money. After hearing the evidence the court found the defendant guilty and imposed a fine of $10.

Will Be Examined

Carl J. Phil was arrested in a house in Chelmsford yesterday on a charge of unlawfully entering a dwelling house. The court was informed that Phil went to the house of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Swanson in Chelmsford yesterday and refused to leave the place when ordered to do so. It is claimed that Phil claimed he was sent by a "higher power" and that under no consideration could he leave. His case was continued until tomorrow so that he may be examined by Dr. Benner as to his sanity.

Violation of Auto Law

Cases of Drunkenness

Cases of drunkenness were disposed of as follows: Thos. J. Ellis, case continued until tomorrow; Jennie Courtemanche, 3 months in jail; she appealed. Thomas Kilkeny, $15 fine; James P. Flannery, case continued until Friday; Frank D. Harris, case continued until tomorrow.

APPOINTED STENOGRAPHER IN OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

Miss Margaret Enwright has been appointed stenographer for the local office of the United States employment service at 112 Merrimack street by the local labor community board of which Frederick N. Wier is chairman. The appointment comes as a result of a civil service examination which Miss Enwright passed successfully.

Although the local office of the employment service has been open several months, Examiner Cornelius Cronin has so far done his own stenographic work. The persistently increasing volume of business, however, has necessitated the appointment of Miss Enwright.

CORP. GEORGE WHELTON SLIGHTLY INJURED

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Whelton, of 177 Mount Vernon street, have received a letter from the U. S. base hospital 50, France, stating that their son, Corp. George B. Whelton, a member of one of the former national army units now connected with the American expeditionary forces, has been slightly wounded and one of his arms has been broken. The letter was dictated by Corp. Whelton himself and written by a member of the American Red Cross on duty at the hospital.

Corp. Whelton says that he is being well cared for and hoped to be able to write himself in a short time. His letter is dated Sept. 29, but he does not say when he was injured.

The Lowell boy is 24 years old and entered the national service last March when he was assigned to Camp Devens. He went overseas about two months ago.

Another brother, Sergt. Thomas Whelton of Co. A, 53rd regular infantry, is also in France. He is 26 years old and has been in the service since last July.

THOMAS L. TULLY IS MADE SERGEANT

Word has been received here that Thomas L. Tully, of 17 So. Whipple street, Lowell, Mass., has been promoted to sergeant. Sergeant Tully was formerly employed by the Texas company and previous to his enlistment was employed as a stenographer at the naval torpedo station, Newport, R. I. Although working for the government his ambitions led him to enlist in the Tank Corps, New York, May 1915. From New York he was transferred to Camp Colt, Gettysburg, Pa., where he is at present serving as a sergeant for Uncle Sam.

Sergeant Tully is a popular young resident of the town, a member of the Sacred Heart parish and Young Men's club, and his host of friends wish him continued success. He has a brother, Private Bernard Tully in the depot brigade at Camp Devens.

APPEAL FOR NIT SHELLS

The local Red Cross has received an appeal from its central organization for the shells of walnuts, butternuts and Brazilian nuts to be used in making gas masks for the boys "over there." In turn the local chapter appeals to the boys and girls of Lowell to save these shells and bring them to the Red Cross rooms in Market street.

FIREMEN ON VACATION

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

The following publicity committee for the united war work campaign which begins here Nov. 1 is appointed today: Charles Dorr, chairman; H. S. Proctor, R. O'Connell, P. R. Moody, A. R. Campbell, C. T. Martin, Willard A. Parker and Dr. E. A. Kent. Mr. Parker will be vice chairman of the committee.

FIRE IN STORE

An alarm from box 118 at 10:21 o'clock this forenoon summoned a portion of the fire department to the store at the corner of Adams and Cross streets, where a pile of paper and rubbish in the back part of the store was burning. The blaze was extinguished before any damage was done.

ATTACKS PRES. WILSON

Sen. Knox, Republican, Protests Any Peace Terms Dictated by President Alone

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—A protest against any peace terms dictated by President Wilson alone, and not representative of American public opinion through senate consideration of the peace treaty, was made in the senate today by Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, republican, former secretary of state, in an address charging the president with political partisanship.

Democratic senators prepared to reply to Senator Knox, forecasting a general discussion of peace and war combined with the partisan political questions.

Allies Push On

from Fannuz, south of Valenciennes, where the British have outflanked that town. Further south the British have pushed closer to the Mormal forest, and north of Valenciennes toward Tournai they have gained further ground north of the Ralsmes forest.

French Reach Guise

Gen. Debeney's first French army continues to press the Germans back between the Oise and the Serre. Officially they are reported in the outskirts of Guise and along the road between Guise and the important railroad point of Marie, toward which Gen. Mangin is advancing east of the Serre. Further east, toward the Aisne, the Germans are reported to be retreating before the continued French pressure.

Fought on Italian Front

Fighting continues in the Italian theatre with the British extending their line east of the Piave in the region of Montello, where they have advanced more than two miles from the river. In these operations the British have captured more than 5000 prisoners. Vienna reports the recapture of Monte Asolone between the Brenta and the Piave, and the repulse of Italian efforts elsewhere in the mountain front.

Serbs Retake Kragujevatz

In northern Serbia, the Austro-Germans have given up Kragujevatz, 55 miles southeast of Belgrade. The town formerly was the main Serbian arsenal and is of vital strategic importance.

Germans in Retreat

German forces holding the sharp salient between the Serre and the Oise rivers in France, have been compelled to abandon their positions, which they had obstinately held for the last 12 days. The French armies on either side of this salient launched a blow on Saturday which flattened out the angle in the enemy's front and which may have a very definite effect on the German line eastward through Rethel and the Argonne forest to the Meuse river.

Report Handling Line Broken

It may be that the Germans have prepared lines further east, to which they are now retreating along the Serre-Oise front, but they are not apparent on the map. There are few, if any, natural positions which will lend themselves to defensive operations west of Vervins, south of which there is broken country. To the north of Vervins there are extensive forests.

Australians Fighting Savagely

There is no evidence of lowered morale in the savage resistance of the Austrians before the Italian attack in the Brenta and Piave sectors in Italy. The allied forces there have not been able to move ahead except by dint of terrific effort and at a very slow pace. It seems probable that the offensive will develop into a reconnaissance in force instead of a real offensive.

British Victory in Palestine

General Allenby's forces in Palestine have occupied Aleppo and appear to have virtually completed the destruction of Turkish power in Syria. The way is now open for a junction between the army of Allenby and the one moving up the Tigris.

although there were many people who refrained from congregating until every danger of "catching the flu" has passed. However, one cannot fairly judge the attitude of the public toward the theatre re-opening until after this evening's performances, when nearly everybody will have had a chance to attend the theatre if he wishes to do so on the first day of grace.

The schools re-opened with fairly normal attendances although as was to be expected, a certain number of parents kept their children home, feeling that a few days more precaution would not be amiss. Supt. Hugh J. Molloy will have figures available tomorrow to show just how the school attendance is affected.

For the first time since the influenza epidemic began to gain momentum, the board of health omitted its daily meeting today.

Up to the noon hour 26 new cases had been reported, bringing the grand total since Sept. 19 to 655. Three more deaths were reported, making a total of 341. Yesterday 17 cases were reported and seven deaths.

Dr. C. R. Eskey, the federal health officer who has been in charge of the isolation hospital for nearly three weeks, has reported back to Washington, D. C., to await further orders. It is understood that Dr. E. L. Mayelle will be in charge of the hospital, until it is closed.

At noon today there were 30 patients at the hospital, 11 less than there last night. Mrs. Arthur Markland is still officiating as matron.

HUGE TASK AHEAD OF AMERICANS

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—Natural positions for defence held by the Germans north of the American lines are probably as strong as any along the entire battle front from Switzerland to the sea.

These positions which the Americans are now facing are especially strong owing to the thickly wooded districts and series of hills and ridges. Strengthening Lines

Taking advantage of these natural military positions the Germans have thrown in strong forces of men and brought up immense quantities of artillery of various calibre, determined to hold what has been called the eastern pivot of their defence line in France at any cost.

From Grand Pre pass, where there has been fierce fighting for nearly two weeks, the Americans face the Bois de Bourgogne and Bois de Bas, which really are a continuation of the Argonne forest. Back of these great woods is the Forest de Boult, all of which forms a splendid protection for troops' concentration and concealing ammunition and heavy artillery. Here the Americans are preparing for the battle of Argonne all over again.

German prisoners report that the Bois de Bourgogne is literally filled with machine guns many of them in the hills and ridges within the forest, and even installed in trees. Further east the Germans have taken advantage of the more wooded tracts of the Bois de Barricourt and the Bois de Taillay, to the south of which is the Freya Stellung line, which has been reached by the Americans west of Minerveville.

East of the Meuse the Americans have more wooded districts in view of the observers, the principal one of which is the Forest de Woivre, along the southern edge of which passes the Freya Stellung. To the south of the Freya Stellung are three series of smaller lines directly facing the Americans, some of which were penetrated in Thursday's fighting.

From what is known about the Freya Stellung line, it follows the hills ridges and woods, zigzagging just north of our present line and extending eastward from the ridge north of Bois de Hazofs and runs along the northern edge of Bois de Bantheville, heading southeasterly and following the hills near Alincerville to Clercy le Petit, crossing the Meuse and passing along a series of wooded ridges just beyond Fontaines.

From Fontaines it passes through the Bois de Tallies and Bois du Bugny and the Bois de Breheville, thence in a northeasterly direction. Recent reports said that the Germans were working vigorously at various points along the Freya Stellung defences building additional dugouts and improving positions generally as fast as possible for a probable winter campaign.

ON CANADIAN LIST

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—The names of the following Americans appear in the Canadian casualty list issued last night:

Missing: T. W. Stubblefield, Mokane, Mo.; wounded, L. Bousquet, Newport, Vt.; B. L. Hoben, Arlington, Mass.; J. E. Hesketh, Braintree, Mass.

STRIKE AT LAWRENCE

750 Operatives of the Arlington Mills Demand a 25 Per Cent Increase

LAWRENCE, Oct. 28.—About 750 operatives of the Arlington mills are on strike for a 25 per cent increase in wages and time and a half for overtime. The strikers include dyers and finishers, singers and shear hands. At a meeting this morning a committee was appointed to confer with the mill men.

One of the men in charge of today's meeting said that Agent Mercer of the Arlington mills told him there would be a general increase in wages Dec. 1 and used this for an argument to have the men remain at work.

BRITISH CASUALTIES IN PAST WEEK 37,150

LONDON, Oct. 28.—British casualties reported for the week ending today numbered 32,349, compared with 37,150 for the previous week. They are divided as follows:

Killed or died of wounds: Officers, 435; men, 5307.

Wounded or missing: Officers, 1141; men, 25,365.

119 Merrimack Street

The book promised by the chairman of the Red Triangle campaign was presented by him at a meeting of the executive committee on Saturday morning, October 26th, at the War Work headquarters.

It is a report of both campaigns, and shows a total of $48,063.07 in the first campaign, and $177,635.67 in the second campaign, including a contribution of $2140 from the Boys' Division, all of it earned money.

This report, as also that of the treasurer, Mr. C. B. Redway, was accepted, and the books and the balance of the accounting are now passed on to the State Treasurer.

Mr. Hockmeyer spoke highly of the general co-operation and whole-heartedness of all concerned. He tendered his report and this book, dedicated to the City of Lowell to be presented to the City Library.

THE RED TRIANGLE ORGANIZATION

A resolution was adopted promising FULL CO-OPERATION with those in the UNITED WAR WORK CAMPAIGN, NOVEMBER 11th to 18th, and attendance at the meeting Monday at 7.45 p. m. in the War Work Headquarters Assembly Room, 117 Merrimack street, was urged upon all their old executives.

It has been thoroughly understood that they are all on the job until the boys come back.

NOTICE INFLUENZA VICTIMS

Every person that has been afflicted with influenza should take the Vitalitas tonic. Vitalitas contains the ferrous and ferric sulphates of iron, magnesium and sulphur, and is the character of iron the human system assimilates, which will build up the red corpuscles in the blood, give vitality to important tissues and drive out of your body the toxic poisons. Vitalitas has been used by thousands and they all testify to its merits as a strength builder. It also sweeps from the system such disorders as rheumatism, indigestion, kidney and liver ills. Remember it is the remedy free of alcohol or drugs, and the most delicate invalid can use it. We urge the public to use the Vitalitas treatment. Multitudes have found relief in it when every other remedy has failed; get it today at Dows' drugstore, Merrimack Square.—Adv.

Spanish Ship Loaded With Sugar Is Torpedoed off Barnegat, N. J.

23 Men of the Crew of 29 Reached Shore Early Today—Ship Sunk in 5 Minutes

MANATEE, N. J., Oct. 28.—A Spanish steamship loaded with sugar, was torpedoed 10 miles off Barnegat, N. J., at 10 o'clock last night and 23 men of the crew of 29 reached shore early today, according to information received here by coast guards.

Eleven of the survivors were picked up near the lighthouse at Barnegat and 12 others at Forked River. They were scantily clad and had suffered from exposure throughout the night. It was said that the vessel went down within five minutes. Persons on shore said they heard an explosion at 10 p. m.

Declares Readiness to Negotiate Peace and Immediate Truce and Accepts Wilson's Views

Reply to Wilson's Note of Oct. 19 Follows Germany's Request for Allied Armistice Terms—Official German Note Received—President Not Expected to Make Reply—Ludendorff Quit After Row With Prince Max

(By the Associated Press.)

Austria-Hungary, close upon the heels of Germany's request for allied armistice terms, replied to President Wilson's note of October 19, and declares her readiness to negotiate a peace and an immediate armistice on all the Austrian fighting fronts.

The Austrian government also says it accepts all the views expressed by the president.

This would indicate that Austria is willing to have the Czech-Slovak and Yugo-Slavs determine the measure of independence they desire from the Hapsburg monarchy, but with the text of the reply not yet received this point is not clear.

Wilson Not to Answer Germany
An allied reply to Germany, concerning armistice terms has not yet been announced.

The text of the German note has been received in Washington, but it is indicated that the president probably will not reply to the German government, whose note is looked upon as an acknowledgment of the president's latest note.

Germany Asks Terms

Germany's note asks the allies to name the terms for an armistice. It calls attention to the "far-reaching changes made in the German constitutional structure and avers that a popular government, which is in control of the military powers of Germany, is carrying on the negotiations.

Allies Decide on Terms

It is understood that the allies have decided upon the terms to be exacted before hostilities are suspended, but

Lowell Opens Up for Business After Shut Down Due to Epidemic

Twenty-six New Cases of Influenza Reported—Patients at Isolation Hospital

Lowell resumed the normal tenor of her business and social activities today after a general shut-down of some four weeks due to the gravest health menace which has ever confronted the city. This morning marked the general lifting of the ban which the Lowell board of health had thrown across practically all the activities of the community in the interest of the public health while the influenza epidemic raged with unswaying volume.

The first indication that "things were as they should be" was evident at 6 o'clock when the schools re-opened after a month's vacation and entered to their customary patronage. Then at 8:15 the school bell rang and all the public schools, together with the majority of the parochial schools, threw open their doors and made a fresh start on the 1918-19 school year.

Incidentally, the ban on soda fountains came off this morning, but the soda-drink provenders reported no land-office business during the early part of the day, because people had evidently been out of the habit of drinking at the fountains so long that it took them some time to realize that they had actually been re-opened.

Perhaps the most material evidence of the city's renaissance was the opening of the theatres this afternoon for their first performance in more than four weeks. There were fairly large audiences in all the local houses, Continued on Last Page

Lowell Men Attend Meeting of Catholics to Discuss
War Work Campaign

About 1000 Catholics representing various parishes in the Boston archdiocese met in St. Alphonsus' theatre, Roxbury, yesterday afternoon for the purpose of receiving instructions concerning the drive for the United War Work campaign, which will take place from Nov. 11 to 18 inclusive. The speakers discussed the proposed work from its various angles, while returned soldiers from the battlefront told of the great work which the several organizations are doing and how it has aided in upbuilding and maintaining the morale of the troops.

The principal speaker at the meeting was Francis E. Slattery, chairman of the committee of the city, who pointed out that the National Catholic War council was one of the seven organizations which is to benefit by the drive and that the Knights of Columbus was the active war agency. He stated that the drive had been brought about by the suggestion of President Wilson and that Catholics throughout the country would cheerfully co-operate with the other organizations. He said it is the hope of the archdiocesan officials to turn over not less than 45,000 workers to aid in the campaign.

Other speakers were Rev. Augustino F. Liscio, supervisor of Catholic schools in the archdiocese, who told of the part the school boys and girls will take in the campaign; Lawyer Hugh A. Carney, chairman of the

BIG RECORD FOR YANKS

Free 165 Square Miles and
45 Villages and Capture
20,000 in Month

NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 28.
—(By the Associated Press)—In its first major operation against the Germans, considering the clearing out of the St. Mihiel salient as a local affair, the American army in a few days less than a month has liberated more than 45 villages and advanced to an average depth of 10 miles, freeing 165 square miles of territory. In the offensive the Americans have captured more than 20,000 prisoners.

The Americans attacked on a front of 30 miles from the Argonne to the Meuse, and the advance has been made in the face of almost insurmountable difficulties, due particularly to the nature of the ground which is covered with hills, deep ravines and woods.

In addition the Americans had fronting them four organized systems of trenches—the Hindenburg line, the Haguenau position, the Volker position, and the Krauthilde position.

They have forced their way through all these lines. Ahead of them lies the Freya position, which has been reached at one point in the region of the Dantherville Wood.

The advance has been particularly difficult because the Germans have stubbornly resisted every foot of the way and have used more than 33 divisions on the 20-mile front. The enemy continues to make a formidable effort to hold this front in order to protect his great lateral lines of communication running through Hirsion, Metzere, Sedan, Montmedy and Longuyon. This line is already threatened, and should the Germans lose it they will lose their main line of communication from Germany into occupied France.

In addition to the prisoners, General Pershing's men have taken more than 137 guns of large calibre, numerous machine guns and anti-tank guns, a great store of ammunition and much war material, including locomotives and railway cars.

Since Sept. 26 the Americans have fired more than 2,500,000 shells, the number at times reaching as high as 150,000 daily. The guns used included a great number of heavy ones and also some captured from the enemy.

American aviators and anti-aircraft guns in the period since Sept. 27 have brought down 230 enemy machines and 23 enemy balloons, despite adverse flying conditions and bad weather at times. Bombing airplanes dropped more than 49,000 kilograms of explosives on railroad centres, troop concentrations and other points behind the enemy line.

Big Work for Engineers

From the view of the engineer, the most difficult task faced has been the repairing of roads and the movement of supplies, men, ammunition and food to the front. More than 40,000 engineer troops are employed day and night in rebuilding shell-shattered roads, using where possible crushed rock from villages destroyed by the German shells.

In the Argonne hundreds of yards of German barbed wire entanglements, fastened from tree to tree at various heights, had to be bridged as it was impossible to cut them. In addition, many roads in the Argonne were of black loam, which became a morass in rainy weather. The engineers were compelled to virtually build bridges over many miles of these roads.

The crossing of Forges brook was accomplished in the first day of the advance under a heavy fire. The brook runs through marshy lands and in order to bridge it the engineers had to lay bundles of faggots on both sides of the stream. The crossing was made in record time and then began the battle of the Argonne, which lasted for more than two weeks.

Complaints made by army officers show that of the more than 155 square miles taken from the enemy since Sept. 26 almost one-half were heavily wooded and machine-gun infested. The Americans had to take by storm 153 hills and high crests, most of which were heavily wooded and defended by strong machine gun detachments.

Of the hills 141 were west of the Meuse and 18 east of the river. The Germans also had to be driven from 430 ravines, all defended by machine guns, and nearly as hard to take as the hills.

General Pershing's men have had to advance against the pick of the German army, fighting desperately to hold this important front. Their difficulties are understood more easily when the number of hills, woods and ravines they have had to take is considered.

MANY NEW ENGLAND MEN GRADUATE FROM OFFICERS TRAINING CAMP

The field artillery central officers training camp at Camp Zachary Taylor, near Louisville, Ky., graduated a large class of men October 18, who were candidates to receive commissions as second lieutenants in the field artillery in the United States army. Among the New England men graduating from this school were: Raymond Wilson Russell, Milford, Conn.; Franklin Harwood Gamlett, Bedford, Mass.; John Edward Cassidy, Roxbury, Mass.; Harold Ernest Colson, Salem; Herman Nelson Curtis, Ashburnham; George Henry Howe, Caribou, Me.; Samuel An-

RED TRIANGLE WORKERS HOLD MEETING

A report in connection with the Red Triangle campaign, was made by the treasurer, C. E. Ruxey, at a meeting of the executive committee, held on Saturday. This meeting of local Red Triangle workers at war work headquarters was in charge of Otto Hockmeyer. The reports submitted by the treasurer included statements in connection with the last two campaigns, namely, that of June 26, 1917, when the sum of $18,000.07 was raised, and the other beginning November 11, 1917, at which time $177,635.67 was realized.

A brief address was made by Mr. Hockmeyer, congratulating the workers on the success of the two campaigns. He spoke of the coming campaign for seven organizations, giving encouraging words for another success, and expressing the hope that the same spirit of co-operation would exist. He then formally presented to the city of Lowell the elegantly bound book containing the names of contributors and workers who participated in the two campaigns. This book will be placed in the city library.

Tired All Time. Did Not Want to Work, How He Regained Strength

Sanford, Maine.—"I suffered so much from a run-down, nervous condition and stomach trouble that I never felt like working and had tried almost everything without relief. The first bottle of Vinol however helped me and it has built me up so I feel better now than I have for a long time."—Chester D. Haines.

There is no secret about Vinol. It owes its success to beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the oldest and most famous body building and strength creating tonics. This Woman Recommends
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Her Personal Experience.

McLean, Neb.—"I want to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all women who suffer from any functional disturbance, as it has done me more good than all the doctor's medicine. Since taking it I have a fine healthy baby girl and have gained in health and strength. My husband and I both praise your medicine to all suffering women."

Mrs. JOHN KOPPELMANN, R. No. 1, McLean, Nebraska.

This famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, has been restoring women of America to health for more than forty years and it will well pay any woman who suffers from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness or "the blues" to give this successful remedy a trial.

The letters constantly being published from women in every section of this country prove beyond question the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

$29.50 SALE

Of Women's $40, $45 and $50 COATS—$29.50

Every coat is positively worth $40, $45 and $50 in real money. They are absolutely $40—$50 values, not only in quality and workmanship but in style. Not copies of $40, $45 and $50 coats but the original $40, $45 and $50 models made up by some of the best New York designers and manufacturers who were caught in the dull market that has been sweeping the country from coast to coast.

SALE IN THE FASHION SHOPS—SECOND FLOOR—CHALIFOUX'S

Wonderful Silvertones and ALL WOOL Velours. Some have huge fur collars that button up around the throat and keep you as warm as toast. Some have fur cuffs. Others are plain for women who like to wear their furs with their coats.

ALL ARE REMARKABLE VALUES

Only one condition could have brought about such values right at the height of the season, in war times—a slackening of business on the New York market. We hastened to New York and took advantage of manufacturers unloading surplus stocks of their latest models.

PLAIN COATS OF CUT BOLIVIA

A selection of styles, colors and materials limited only by the number of coats—fifty—Khaki and Pekin Blue and Remider are some of the fine, fashionable shades. Burgundy is another. Navy, Black and Green are included.

Some are belted only in front and the button makers must be prosperous this season judging by the lavish use of buttons for trimming. Otherwise coat are plain. Their beauty lies in their simplicity.

The sale is for women and young women and women with youthful figures. Fifth Avenue styles. Chalifoux Values. Black Coats for mourning.

We wish to call your attention to the window display of Fall Corsets. All the leading makes of Corsets are to be found in our Corset Shop—Second Floor.

Give Your Old Records to the Boys Over There

Bring any records you're willing to part with to Chalifoux's Victrola Store, 4th floor, and we'll see that they are sent to the boys over there. It's a wonderful thing to do and the boys will bless you for your thoughtful consideration. Scratch your name and address on the smooth part of each record with any sharp pointed instrument so the boys over there will know the sender.

HARNESS RECORDS HELD FIRM IN 1918

That Father Time is a tough customer to beat is shown by the fact that the world's harness records for all ages, both trotters and pacers, remain much the same as a year ago, notwithstanding the fact that the season of 1918 was replete with brilliant performances.

When Hollywood Bob, by Peter the Great, 2:07 1/4, went a heat in a 2:04 1/4 at the first meeting in which the prominent furniture candidates took part, and had a band of youngsters behind him that plainly showed that they had 2:05 or better speed on tap, it was predicted that the record for three-year-old trotters would be dismantled, yet it still remains to the credit of Real brother, all of this city. The body was removed to the funeral parlors of Undertaker William A. Mack in Gurnham street.

Break a Cold In Few Hours

First dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" relieves the cold and gripe misery—Don't stay stuffed up!

Relief comes instantly. A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or lungs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sore throats, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and snuffing! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine—Adv.

News From Camp Devens

CAMP DEVENS, Oct. 28.—The 12th division has never before seen such a crowd of visitors as it did yesterday. It was without doubt one of the biggest days at Camp Devens since the New England cantonment opened, for more than 200,000 people came here from all parts of New England. At least 10,000 automobiles were here, this making the biggest day for automobiles since the ban was lifted on the use of gasoline on the Sabbath. It was generally agreed.

They flocked into camp, and then out again, for there were no restrictions on the movements of the soldiers, and, as the weather was ideal, they simply "beat it" for the open country" as soon as they were found by their friends. The day was ideal for tramping, and everybody took advantage of it. Anywhere within 10 miles of the camp they could have seen the bright dresses of the visitors and beside them the olive drab of Uncle Sam.

In Ayer special policemen were stationed everywhere to handle the huge volume of traffic, and between Ayer and the camp the military police and provost guard had men stationed to keep things moving—and moving in the proper way. The result was that although it was one of the biggest days Camp Devens has ever seen, there was no confusion and everything ran smoothly. The M. P.'s and the provost guard have received compliments for the manner in which they handled the visitors.

Special trains from Boston arrived at regular intervals and last night they went back loaded down with happy but tired visitors.

There was one visitor at camp yesterday, though, who isn't as happy as she was when she arrived Saturday. She is 13-year-old Laura Vigue of Waterville, Me. She left her home Friday for Camp Devens, where she intended to look up a friend, Private Joseph A. St. Peter of the 35th company, depot brigade. Friday night the state police and the military authorities received a telegram from her father asking that she be detained, as he was coming here to get her.

Officer James Devereaux of the state police located her yesterday and brought her back to her father who was anxiously waiting for her. Officer Devereaux found her in camp, still looking for the friend, who, by the way, was not in camp.

Boys Have Extra Sleep
Those doughboys who were in camp over Sunday had 1 1/2 hours' extra sleep Saturday night. They figure it this way:

As the clocks were all set back one hour they gained an hour there. Then, as the new time went into effect, they were ordered for 5:15 instead of 5:45 on the old time. On Sunday reveille is sounded an hour later than it is on week days, so Sunday morning they figure that the bugles really blew at 7:15.

The difference between 5:45 and 7:15 being 1 1/2 hours, the mathematicians say that they gained 1 1/2 hours. But even the figures won't admit that they were any more anxious to leave the hay Sunday morning than they are any other morning. In accordance with the new time system, retreat was sounded at 5:45 last night instead of 5:30.

Maj. Gen. McCain attended church in camp Sunday morning. He went to Y.M.C.A. Hut 30, where Chaplain Harrison of the 73rd Infantry preached. The general spends almost as much time in his office on Sunday as he does on a week day. Gen. McCain doesn't believe in allowing a minute to go to waste until after Germany is brought to a standstill.

For the first time in many months the military authorities held up every automobile entering the camp after dark last night and each car was thoroughly searched for liquor. It appears that some of the surrounding towns are becoming lax again regarding the order that no liquor is to be furnished to men in uniform, and bootleggers are once more on the rampage. A quantity of strong drink was found by the police Saturday night and in many cases the names of those who furnished it to the soldiers were secured.

TROLLEY CAR HITS AUTO

Miss Costello and Miss Boyle Injured in Accident in Rogers Street

Although Miss Susie Costello and Miss Mary Boyle were painfully hurt when the electric automobile in which they were riding late Saturday afternoon was run into by a Bay State trolley, on Rogers street, their attending physician today says they will probably not suffer permanently from the results of the accident although each woman experienced a severe shock.

The accident occurred when Miss Costello who has owned and operated the electric Victoria in which she and her guest were riding, turned out to avoid a car parked in front of the entrance to Rogers Hall. She was able to do this all right. The accident was caused when Miss Costello, who says she brought her automobile to a stop, and held up her hand as a signal to the motorman to stop his car, the trolley came down the incline at that point at so fast a clip that at that particular point the motorman could not stop his car quick enough to avoid hitting the automobile with the two women.

The car was overturned and Miss Boyle was more severely hurt than Miss Costello. The electric Victoria has been ruined in the collision beyond all possible hope of repair. It was a car for which the Costello family had a great deal of affection owing to the faithful service the car gave. It was one of two sample and especially made to order cars built by a manufacturer, one of which went to Thomas A. Edison, the inventor, and the other was bought for the use of the Costello family.

Following the accident Saturday both women were given temporary treatment at Rogers Hall and were later removed to their respective homes where they are resting comfortably today.

MANY ENROLL IN GAS HOUNDS REGIMENT

J. Addison, the young electrician at the Kilton Machine Co. who is the recruiting officer in this city for the Gas Hounds regiment, stated today that 27 young men have already joined this popular branch of the overseas service.

New England's quota is 30,000, and

The Modern Epicure

The epicure of today could not ask a more delicious spread for biscuits, bread or toast than Benedict Brand "Sweet Nut" Margarine—the new table luxury made from fresh pasteurized milk and the crisp, white inside meat of the tropical coconut. Have you tried it yet? If not, lose no time in adding this real treat to your home menu. Taste it, and you will realize how good, how wholesome, how really satisfying it is. Small wonder when you remember that it is made from nature's most perfect foods. Only at the Direct Importing Co.'s store, 31 North Main St., up one flight, Benedict Brand "Sweet Nut" Margarine is sold to appreciative customers at 32c a pound. That's where you find also Benedict Brand Teas, Coffees and grocery specialties retailed at wholesale prices.

Mr. Addison states that already 10,000 volunteers have been signed up. He expects that the remainder will be secured in the next two weeks, and his advice to anyone who contemplates an overseas trip with the Gas Hounds is to get on the bandwagon now before it is too late.

Mr. Addison is instructed to enroll any man who registered in the 18-45 draft on Sept. 12, and the only requisites are that the applicant must get his serial number from the local board, and if possible, his classification card, although this last is not absolutely essential. He must also have had a little mechanical experience.

The recruiting officer may be seen on Monday and Saturday evenings at War Work headquarters, 119 Merrimack street, and on any other night at his home, 21 Sixth avenue. In speaking about the establishing of a special recruiting station, Mr. Addison said that anyone wishing to donate a small room in the downtown section to serve as a temporary station for the next two weeks would be the means of helping the cause to a great extent, as it would make it much handier for the would-be recruits to come to such a place, than to go up to his own residence.

The following men have already been enrolled in the Gas Hounds Regiment: Paul Dineen, 25 Oliver street; Daniel Murphy, 56 Arlington street; Hugh Thomas, 10 West Meadow road; Allen Huntley, 28 Smith; Henry Masse, 80 Alken avenue; Henry Parlin, 200 Branch street; George Lyons, 45 Prospect street; Henry Finnerall, 32 West Manchester street; Francis Donoghue, 83 Stronquist avenue; John Shea, 35 Lawrence street; Charles J. Clavin, 371 Pawlucket street; George Teel, 154 Cabot street; Joseph Hector, 82 Rock street; William Brown, 23 Bellevue avenue; Thomas Sanders, 12 Washington street; John Lardner, 11 Colwell avenue; Albert McDougall, 637 Broadway; Lewis Monte, no address; Thomas Rogers, Box 17, Greenville, N. H.; Henry C. Carragher, 755 Beacon street; William Dacey, 176 Anderson street; George Spence, 1234 Gorham street; Joseph Steinberg, 46 Tyler street; John Chestnut, 267 Cumberland road; John Cummings, 224 Adams street; Patrick McDonough, 525 Broadway and George Carroll, 643 Broadway.

Gas Hounds' Insignia
The Motor Transport Corps which controls the operations, maintenance, engineering and technical supervision of the motorized vehicles of the army, has a new insignia. This corps is now a separate division of the army.

The insignia for the officers is an emblem 1 1/4 inches in diameter with an automobile wheel with a pneumatic tire and the service helmet with the wings of Mercury attached. The insignia for the enlisted men is 1 1/4 inch in diameter and is a motor truck wheel with a solid tire. The service helmet is in the center with the wings of Mercury attached. The insignia for the officers is composed of bronze and silver. The enlisted men's insignia is entirely of bronze.

The Motor Transport Corps is now arranging to give a certain amount of infantry drill to both the officers and enlisted men designed to enable the men to enter into the field at any time this is necessary in the course of their service abroad. Plans are also arranged for the equipment of all the trucks with machine guns so that they will form independent machine gun units in case of need and furthermore will be protected against enemy airplanes which frequently destroy trucks by dropping bombs.

The Motor Transport Corps is greatly in need of both enlisted men and officers. This division of the army, which is new, will require from 200,000 to 250,000 men within the next year with proportionate number of officers. Opportunities for promotion are considered excellent because of the expected growth of the division. Preference for service in the Motor Transport Corps can be stated in questionnaire filled in by men eligible for the draft and those in deferred classifications may ask to be inducted in the corps for service. In either case the recruit can also make application to enter an officers' training camp.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

STAND BY THE PRESIDENT

We do not see so very much justification for that outburst of indignation by the republican leaders in congress in conjunction with Simon D. Fess, chairman of the republican congressional committee. These gentlemen do not give the president credit for honesty of statement when he says that what he desires is not party ascendancy for political or partisan reasons but for the unity of action that is so important at this juncture in the progress of the war. President Wilson is a great believer in united effort. He, it was, who secured the unity of command in the allied battlefronts; and now after he has had several diplomatic exchanges with the Germans, he wishes the citizenship of the nation to show some solidarity in support of his leadership.

There can be no gainsaying the fact that the election of a democratic majority in the coming election will look like an endorsement of the president's course in directing the war and in driving a diplomatic wedge between the German people and their military masters. It would indeed be a serious reflection upon the president whose leadership is so highly praised by the allied powers, if the people of this nation on November 5 should administer a rebuke in the form of a republican majority in congress.

In spite of all these republican leaders say in their excitement, the president's position is fully justified and nothing except the active political work of an underhand kind by the republican politicians could have moved the president to issue such an appeal.

"Uncle Dudley" of the Boston Globe is one of the most level headed editors in this country and in everything he writes he is strictly nonpartisan. Speaking in justification of the president's appeal he said:

"The entente peoples look to him for leadership in making a liberal and lasting peace. If they see him repudiated at the polls they cannot but wonder whether popular opinion in fact the United States is indeed in sympathy with his liberal policies. For the success of his program he must depend quite as much on the support of the entente peoples as on that of his own. To weaken him at home is to weaken him abroad. It is to weaken, in fact, the moral unity of the allies. So close-knit has the world become that an American election is of vital international influence."

That is plain language but forcible and truthful.

European peoples give much attention to the strength of opposition parties as indicating the extent to which the existing administrations represent popular sentiment. At the present time therefore, it is of the utmost importance that there shall be no split in the popular support of President Wilson's stand in the war.

This claim that republicans cast more votes for democratic measures than did the democrats is all nonsense. It is true that on certain measures some stages of which were finally passed, there was considerable confusion, and party lines were very largely disregarded; but it has been very noticeable also that republicans have fought the administration on most of the war measures until they saw that the bills would be passed over their opposition. Then they turned over and voted for them so as to go on record as supporting the war measures. Similarly, they kept up their criticism until near election, when they became silent and rushed to cover. Lately they have been doing their utmost to secure a republican congress. Col. Roosevelt and Mr. Fess have been specially outspoken on this matter and this fact was undoubtedly responsible for the issuance of the president's appeal for united action.

In view of the whole situation, therefore, it is important to comply with the president's request. Give him whatever endorsement there may be in a majority of his own party. That does not call for the republican leaders assert, not for the election of Henry Ford who is not a democrat.

FIGHTING THE EPIDEMIC

The report of the board of health on the influenza epidemic shows that the work done by the various agencies under the direction of the board was of the most elaborate and far reaching kind. Indeed we doubt whether in any other city of the country a more complete canvass was made for the relief of those suffering from disease or more effective measures taken to stop the spread of the epidemic. Particularly remarkable was the survey made by the public school teachers who made a canvass of the entire city, going from door to door and securing a complete census of those who had been sick, those sick at the time of their visit and those who had died from the effects of the influenza. The teachers in performing this duty had to take a great many risks of catching the disease; but they went about it in a courageous manner, although with due precaution for their own safety. It is gratifying to know that thus far none of them has been reported ill as a result of their canvass. Another feature, practically unprecedented in our city, was the appearance of 57 sisters from the various parochial schools who visited over 3000 households where they did everything possible for the relief of the influenza patients. The good sisters as usual braved every danger and performed their work in a most self-sacrificing manner. The Lowell Guild which was the headquarters for the relief work, with ten nurses employed, cared for 1255 cases and made 5000 visits while the League of Catholic Women rendered aid to 852 households and 1693 individuals.

There can be no doubt whatever that but for the splendid work of these various agencies, the mortality resulting from the epidemic would have been very much greater. The generous gift of $1000 from Cardinal O'Connell and his instruction to the sisters of the various parochial schools to assist in the work, was highly appreciated and showed the regard of His Eminence for the welfare of his native city.

While the board of health was criticized for the drastic measures adopted in closing stores, theatres, schools and churches, it is doubtful if any more lenient method would have accomplished the desired results.

The opening of the evening schools of all grades including the vocational schools is a matter of importance to those who have had to go to work from the grammar schools and to those others who, having gone to work, may wish to improve their education along mechanical lines such as those provided for in the vocational schools.

Many foreigners who know little or nothing of the English language have a great opportunity offered them in the elementary schools. The city is willing to furnish instruction to such foreigners free of charge and it is for their own benefit as well as that of the city, that they should attend these schools and embrace the offer of gaining even a slight knowledge of English.

During the epidemic which is now happily on the wane, many of the worst sufferers were those who could not speak English. Their ignorance of English did not bring on the disease but it was a great handicap in preventing them from availing themselves of the various relief agencies or even in calling a doctor in due time when the attack of the influenza came on.

At the vocational school there are classes in which young men can learn the rudiments of carpentry, machine shop practice, automobile repairing and other arts. For girls and women there are classes in dressmaking and domestic science which should be well attended. These schools are maintained under the direction and largely at the expense of the state. Such advantages when offered gratis are liable to be undervalued but the young people of the present day should remember that they are specially favored in having such schools available. If they fail to embrace the opportunity for advancement thus offered, the fault will rest with themselves.

As a result of the war many young people who would have gone back to the high school have remained at work under the lure of high wages. They have an opportunity to make up for the loss of a high school course by attending the evening high school.

STAFFORD'S RECORD

There is one William Henry Stafford, representing the 5th Wisconsin (Milwaukee) district in congress.

He is a republican and hopes for re-election on November 5.

Since America arrayed herself with the forces of good on the battlefields "over there" this precious specimen of anti-American congressman has heaped up a war record as rotten as was possible for him to achieve. Consistently his voice and his vote have been thrown into the scales for Bill Hohenzollern and against Woodrow Wilson.

Indeed, Bill Stafford's war record is so bad that decent republicans of Milwaukee are now combining with the democrats to defeat him and to send a real American to the national house of representatives.

Here is Stafford's war record: He voted against the resolution for the arming of merchantmen; he voted in favor of the Cooper amendment to this bill; voted against the declaration of war against Germany; voted present on the soldiers' insurance bill; voted for the war revenue bill; voted against the Kahn amendment to strike out the volunteer amendment in the selective service act and voted for the selective service act on final passage; voted for the espionage act; voted for the resolution declaring war against Austria; voted against nation-wide prohibition amendment; voted against woman suffrage amendment; voted for railroad control bill.

Before war started, Stafford voted against the motion to table the McLenore resolution.

Stafford's latest exhibition of anti-Americanism and pro-Germanism was to stand singlehanded and alone among all the representatives in congress in opposition to the war mothers' bill.

One way to fight these high priced war bidding fair to enlist some of us, in the matter of articles of food, would be to reduce our personal consumption of this 50 cents a pound butter, $1 a dozen eggs and 50 cents a dozen bananas, to the minimum if not induced to banning them completely. These are things that absolutely must be sold, you know, and when distribution slows up, the tendency is for the price to fall.

Green Bay, Wis., people rubbed their eyes the other morning and could hardly believe what they saw when Mrs. Cecily Beaumont was seen going from store to store stopping long enough to bring forth rags and polish and industriously do a good job of polishing the air lights. Wisconsin has not voted suffrage to women yet but Mrs. Beaumont may offer another argument why she should.

It must be that one way to go bear hunting, according to news from Ellsworth, Me., is to get a job driving the stage between Great Pond and Ellsworth. On a recent trip Adelbert Crosby, the stage driver, reports that making a turn in the road, five big and little bears confronted him. Both man and bears were mutually surprised, but Adelbert drew forth his trusty rifle and succeeded in killing one little bear.

It seems to be a rare week when Henry B. Endicott, food administrator of Massachusetts, does not satisfactorily settle some labor trouble. The Boston Consolidated Gas company and some of its workers let Henry decide the merits of a wage increase dispute and are apparently satisfied. Some of us wonder just what that State Board of Arbitration is supposed to be doing if anything in these war times when everybody is supposed to work or fight.

England this year is reputed to have 16,775,000 sheep, four per cent more than last year and with so many sheep hanging all around there is plenty of example and excuse for pretty English girls to make "sheep's eyes" at stalwart American bluejackets and boys in khaki passing through, isn't there?

Perhaps the business men of Vergennes, Vt., will still continue to tell visitors and persons they encounter in their outside travels that Vergennes, as a community, has a lot of live wires but this assertion can be discounted if you will remind the Vergenneser you understand the Western Union has continued doing business in Vergennes.

The Rev. William Van Allen of the Church of the Advent, Boston, lays almost the sole blame and responsibility for this gripe epidemic to human greed and intimates it is sent as a punishment for wickedness committed. Judging by the punishment, human greed must be pretty rank.

One headline says the Germans will sacrifice the kaiser to secure peace. It is supposed they would be willing to sacrifice pretty nearly anything to secure peace, and now they may not regard the loss of the kaiser as sacrificing much. Good riddance we should say.

A Pittsfield paper says that one of the city's young men who is reputed to wear a gauze mask when he calls on his girl, is not wearing the badge of courage. True indeed but you live longer if you will stand the humiliation of wearing the badge of caution.

In reply to the question, anent a new Hoover regulation, as to whether liver-and-bacon is one meat or two, we'll observe that we regard liver as a substitute for meat and bacon an usher for good fried eggs.

SEEN AND HEARD

New Zealand's death rate is less than one per cent. What we want is not a lower death rate but a lower living rate!

A megaphone and fan have been combined in a new novelty. Werg baseball in season, we could visualize this combination.

The Americans back up the politics in their Argonne drive. Fritz may well do some backing up when the Yank gets his back "up."

The German notes not only had nothing to say, but said it poorly. Even the crown prince, however, could understand Wilson's notes.

The British commons admits women but, unfortunately, there is no imminent danger of women sitting in the United States senate. It would be no fit place for women without fundamental changes in senatorial courtesy.

It would huck us all up for the winter war hardships if we could have unequivocal assurance that one of the "details" of the peace settlement will be drastic punishment for every responsible German criminal.

One little hour of birth. And the wail of a welcome cry. And a hush to rest on a warm, white breast.

One little hour of life. And a smile for the final test. And the sweep and scope of a faith or hope. And the peace of a long, long rest. And the wonder dumb for the lack of One little hour of death.

Daily Health Talks

Where Most Sickness Begins and Ends

BY FRANKLIN DUANE, M. D.

It can be said broadly that most human ills begin in the stomach and end in the stomach. Good digestion means good health, and poor digestion means bad health. The minute your stomach fails to properly dispose of the food you eat, troubles begin to crop out in various forms. Indigestion and dyspepsia are the commonest forms, but thin, pale blood, headaches, backaches, pimples, blotches, dizziness, belching, coated tongue, weakness, poor appetite, sleeplessness, coughs, colds and bronchitis are almost as common. There is but one way to have good health, and that is to put and keep your stomach in good order. This is easy to do if you take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a wonderful tonic and blood purifier, and is so safe to take, for it is made of roots and herbs. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., stands behind this standard medicine, and it is good to know that so distinguished a physician is proud to have his name identified with it. When you take Golden Medical Discovery, you are getting the benefit of the experience of a doctor whose reputation goes all around the earth. Still more, you get a temperance medicine that contains not a drop of alcohol or narcotic of any kind. Long ago Dr. Pierce combined certain valuable vegetable ingredients—without the use of alcohol—so that these remedies always have been strictly temperance medicines.

If ills are torturing you, get and use Pierce's Anodyne Pile Ointment. The quick relief it gives is hard to believe until you try it. If constipated, use Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be taken while using Anodyne Pile Ointment. Few indeed are the cases which these splendid remedies will not relieve and usually overcome. They are so good that nearly every drug store has them for sale.—Adv.

I remembered a story he used to tell about a chap who asked a man: "Have you ever heard anything about a machine for telling when a man is lying?"

"Sure," said the man. "Have you ever seen one?" said the chap. "Seen one?" said the man. "By gosh, I married one."

An Ex-Member

J. S. L. sends it. "Struggled through your Jazz literature the other evening on Broadway."

He was a student of superstition and called it quits with this episode: One noon in a crowded counter lunch room, I upset the salt shaker. To the superstitious that is a sign of bad luck. Unless a portion of the spilled salt is thrown over the left shoulder. Not wishing to engage in any fight, I immediately took a Goodly pinch and Tossed it over my Right shoulder. Into the countenance of a husky gent behind me, and he tossed a Cruel hard look on my Cranium in return!

New Way to Pay an Old Debt

"I am a mild man," said the visitor, taking a firmer hold on the stick he carried, "but unless I get some money to soothe my feelings there'll be trouble!"

"Was the boy bitten so very badly by my dog?" inquired the dog's owner?

"He was bitten exactly $50 worth, sir."

"I hope your boy will soon get well," remarked the dog's owner as he paid over the money.

"He isn't my boy," said the man preparing to depart.

"What?" "He's the son of a friend of mine, who owes me $50 and as he couldn't pay, I turned his son's bite over to me to see if I could collect that. I have done so. If, ever you or any of your family get bitten by a dog just come to me and I'll collect the damage for you on 25 per cent commission. Good day!"—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Street Car Gallantry

A gallant but awkward young man, making his way through a crowded street car a few nights ago, his arms laden with parcels, accidentally jostled a woman. He stopped to beg her pardon.

As he bowed a parcel fell from his arms and dropped on the woman's foot. He stooped to pick up the package and the rim of his hat bumped her nose. He took off his hat and tried again.

This time his head hit the broad brim of the woman's hat, tilting it south-by-southeast. She stepped backward, lost her balance, and fell into the lap of an elderly man.

The gallant but awkward young man reached out a hand to assist her, caught a flimsy sleeve and tore it.

Negro Yanks

I have just been chatting with one of our American Y.M.C.A. secretaries, who is a real expert on the subject of the American negroes in the war. Edward B. Schumacher is from the south, and he has mingled among them familiarly on both sides of the ocean and heard their often exceedingly humorous comments.

They asked one man if he had been inoculated. This was his answer: "I've been assassinated (vaccinated); I've done had de celluloid (varioid); and now dey tells me Ise a mule (immune)."

"Who?" "De butcher, de grocer and de saloon keeper."

A negro officer was having a desperate time getting his men to turn and march in the right direction.

"Eight face!—left face!" he would call, and they would do just the opposite.

Finally he called out in accents of anguish, "It's a mighty good thing you all is goin' in de cavalry. De horse'll know which way to turn when you don't!"

"Niggah!" said a captain to an exceptionally stupid though pathetically earnest and willing private. "You is suitably de biggest bonthead I has evah seen in all mah 'perience. Ise done told you all I know an' you doan know nothin'!"

Another man approached the desk at a recruiting station and said, "Say, boss I want to enlist."

"In what?"

"I wants in de infantry."

"Well, this is de navy. Don't you want to enlist in de navy?"

"No, sah! By no means! 'Twen Ise in de infantry big shell busts, and dere I is. When Ise on a ship big shell busts, and den where is I?"

"Goin' to enlist?" a negro asked a friend.

"Yes, indeed!"

"Whatfor?"

"Infantry."

"How about aviation corps?"

"What's dat?"

"Flyin'!"

"No, sah! Nothin' doin'! Not for me, nohow!"

"Why not, niggah?"

"Why not? Lemme tell you all why not. You get in one o' dem machines what has a body like a fish, wing like a butterfly, an engine on its nose. Two holes, one fer de shover (chaffeur), one fer de captain. You goes up 'bout three miles, gals' like de debil. Den de motor stalls. Den the captain be say to you, 'Bud, you get out and crank dat motor.'"—Paris Letter in London Mail.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

While walking across Centralville bridge Saturday noon, I noticed two apparently good life preservers floating on the surface of the water. I haven't any idea where they came from or how they came to be floating in the water. It struck me that it was a good time for them to be there because the traffic across the bridge Saturday afternoon is very heavy. Why I say this is because I know that often times a would-be suicide changes his mind after he touches the water. I haven't seen as long a bridge as the Centralville bridge unprovided with life preservers, in a long time. Lowell does not seem to be in the throes of any suicide epidemic and I have no idea that it will be, but I believe a bridge like that ought to be equipped with life preservers for a lifesaver is somewhat like a revolver—you may not need it but once in a hundred years, but when you do need it, you need it badly.

I have been wondering if I would see any outboard hunters in Lowell streets this fall and, so far, I can report having seen but one, a red headed youth over in Centralville last Saturday. He had the regulation khaki hunter's coat stuffed with shells, a pipe and a single barreled shot gun. He had no dog. If I were going hunting and had no dog and only a single barreled shot gun, I would expect that I must be a mighty fine shot and the game plenty and sluggish acting in order that I bring home any stew meat. I presume one of the reasons Lowell men do not go hunting as much as formerly is because wages are too attractively high to afford the time being spent in hunting and, of course, there is a severe penalty in this state for persons caught hunting on Sunday.

I am glad to note that most of the posters and signs advertising the Fighting Fourth Liberty loan have disappeared. It was the wish and desire of Secretary McAdoo, that on the Monday following the United States having done its duty and subscribed this huge sum, all trace of the campaign necessary to solicit it, should disappear. Some of the banks and one or two restaurants still have the posters up, but that is all. Before I forget it I want to announce that for once (and for about the only time) I made good as a prophet in saying that I believed the Washington Institution for Savings, Middlesex street, would get a total of 1200 names on its rolls of honor. There are three of these rolls in the windows, and I note more than 1200 persons bought bonds through this bank.

I grow quite a bit of grumbling and growling on the part of a number of members of the Lowell companies of the state guard because there is good prospect that they will, within a short time, don their uniforms and go to Lawrence to police and staff the influenza hospital down there. I rather expected there would be some kicking on the order to go to Lawrence. It is one thing to wear one's military spangles in one's home town, but an entirely different thing sometimes to have to rush around a military hospital attired in those self same spangles doing some necessary but often times disagreeable duties. In the case of Lawrence there is probably more ground for kicking about going and doing her nursing than there would be for any other city or town in the state and the reason for it is that Lawrence has kept her saloons and show shops open constantly all through the epidemic. Liquor ruled in normal times, she apparently wanted her liquor unrestrainedly when a pestilence stalked through her community. I believe if I were a state guardsman I would feel somewhat sore about going to Lawrence myself.

Times are not particularly prosperous with Lowell jewelers. I understand, money spent for Thrift Stamps and to pay instalments on Liberty bonds cannot, of course, be spent for jewelry, no matter how meritorious in value. I understand a clerk in a jewelry store stands a poor show of being exempted from the draft. Selling gew gaws is not an essential industry, although possibly at times a delightful one. On this account male salesmen in jewelry shops become increasingly scarce. Their places have to be taken by women and proprietors tell me women do not make as good salespeople as men, women would rather talk jewelry with a male clerk. Added to this the fuel administration is grudging both in the matter of letting jewelry shops have light for window displays and fuel for heating purposes. In this respect the jewelers of course are no worse off than some other stores.

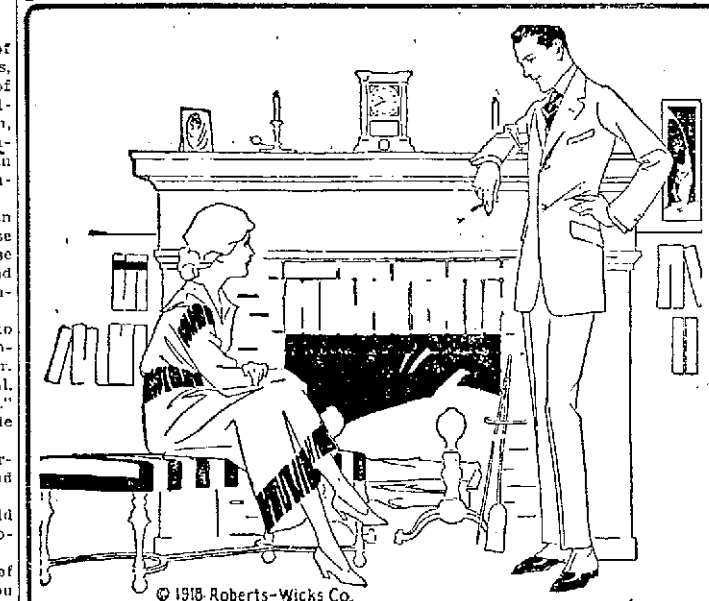

The local evening newspaper is the paper that reaches the home when the whole family is there to read it. The Sun fills this field in Lowell.

News of the Churches

Catholic churches resumed their usual services yesterday with the regular schedule of masses and evening services. There were fairly large congregations at all the masses. A long list of announcements and precaution against any lurking symptoms of the influenza, extended sermons and in most instances, merely the gospel was read.

The united war work campaign which is to be conducted the week of Nov. 11 was discussed at all the masses and in some cases it was announced that a representative working body from each parish had been chosen to co-operate with the general campaign committee for this city.

The annual collection for the diocesan charities which was to have been taken up several weeks ago will be taken up at all the masses next Sunday.

The October devotions were resumed last evening and will continue every evening this week through Thursday. Next Friday, the first Friday of the month, will also be the feast of All Saints, a holy day of obligation. Masses will be held on the usual holy day hours. Saturday will be All Souls day and will be a day of devotion. Confessions will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoon and evening.

Right Rev. William O'Brien, P. R. pastor of St. Patrick's church, announced that the parochial schools in that parish would not open until Wednesday, so that the Sisters who have been giving aid in the epidemic might have a few days to recuperate. The other parochial schools opened this morning.

St. Patrick's
Rev. James J. Kerrigan celebrated the 8.30 o'clock mass at St. Patrick's church yesterday and the members of the Junior Holy Name society received communion in a body. Rev. Joseph A. Curtin celebrated the 11 o'clock mass and also made the announcements. Monsignor O'Brien, the pastor, celebrated the 7 o'clock mass. Masses on Friday will be at 5, 7 and 9 o'clock. On Saturday there will be a mass at 6.30 and a solemn high mass at 8 o'clock.

Immaculate Conception
The usual masses were celebrated at the Immaculate Conception church yesterday. Friday's masses will be at 5.15, 6.30, 8 and 9 o'clock and on Saturday at 5.15, 6.30 and 8 o'clock. Members of the Y.M.C.I. will hold their quarterly communion next Sunday. Tomorrow evening the organization will hold a concert and dancing party at their Stackpole street hall.

St. Peter's
Rev. Daniel J. Keleher, Ph. D., the pastor, celebrated the 7.30 o'clock mass at St. Peter's church yesterday and the members of the Girls' sodality received communion in a body. Rev. Peter Linehan assisted in giving communion. Rev. Daniel J. Keleher celebrated the late mass at 11 o'clock and the pastor made the announcements. October devotions will be held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 7.30, on Thursday evening at 7 and services will be held on Friday and Saturday evenings at 7. Masses on Friday will be at 5, 7, 8 and 9 o'clock and on Saturday at 5, 7 and 9 o'clock. Members of the Immaculate Conception sodality will receive communion next Sunday in a body.

St. Michael's
The usual schedule of masses was carried out at St. Michael's church yesterday. The parish school re-opened this morning. Friday's masses will be at 5, 6, 7 and 8.30 o'clock and evening services will be at 7.30. Saturday's masses will be at the same hours. Confessions will be heard Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoon and evening.

Sacred Heart
Rev. William Mahan, O.M.I., celebrated the 7.30 o'clock mass at the Sacred Heart church yesterday and members of the Children of Mary sodality received communion. Rev. John P. Flynn, O.M.I., the pastor, assisted in giving communion. Very Rev. T. Wade Smith, O.M.I., celebrated the late mass on Friday and Saturday will be at 5, 6, 7 and 8 o'clock. A sermon on "All Souls" will be delivered Thursday evening.

St. Columba's
The usual masses were celebrated at St. Columba's church yesterday. Masses on Friday and Saturday will be at 5 and 7 o'clock. Confessions will be heard Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoon and evening.

St. Margaret's
The customary schedule of masses was carried out at St. Margaret's church yesterday. A meeting of the members of the parish interested in the coming reunion on Nov. 21 will be held later in the week.

St. Joseph's
Members of St. Anne's society received communion in a body at the early mass at St. Joseph's church yesterday and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon held a meeting with their spiritual director, Rev. Eugene Turcotte, in charge. The regular communion and meeting of the Sacred Heart league which was scheduled for yesterday has been postponed.

St. Louis
The Sacred Heart league held its regular meeting at the early mass at St. Louis church yesterday with the pastor, Rev. F. X. Gauthier, in charge. A special meeting of the members of the parish was held in the afternoon in the parish hall for the purpose of making arrangements for the war work campaign to be conducted next month. Arthur Gaudette was elected president of the parish committee and Miss Eva Dupuis secretary. It is expected that the workers in the recent French orphanage campaign will volunteer for the new drive.

Notre Dame de Lourdes
The usual schedule of masses was carried out in this parish yesterday. Members of St. Anne's sodality received communion in a body at the early mass at St. Marie's church yesterday. Rev. Julian Racette, O.M.I., was in charge.

Calvary Baptist
Rev. A. R. Dilts preached at both services at the Calvary Baptist church yesterday. The topic for the morning service was, "The Law of the Harvest," and in the evening, "Optimism." The superintendent's council will meet Tuesday evening.

Fifth Street Baptist
There was an excellent attendance in all the various departments of the Fifth Street Baptist church yesterday. The pastor, Rev. C. B. Marston, preached in the morning on the subject, "After the Epidemic What?" The topic for the evening service was, "Those Who Did and Those Who Did Not."

First Baptist
"A Friend in These Times of Trouble" was the subject discussed by Rev. A. C. Archibald at the First Baptist church yesterday. The Sunday school and young people's societies resumed activities. In the evening the pastor took for the topic of his sermon, "Has God Anything to do With the Epidemic?" The Men of the Round Table will hold their annual fall rally on Wednesday and the speaker for the evening will be Mr. J. T. Ullom, who has recently returned from the battle front.

Paige Street Baptist
Rev. Earl T. Favro conducted both services at the Paige Street Baptist church yesterday, preaching in the morning from the text, "Feeding on Ashes." There were two more blue stars added to the service flag and one changed to a gold star. Mr. Honney conducted the musical program for the day, as leader of the choir.

Worthing Street Baptist
"Patriotism, Church Going and Religion" was the topic discussed yesterday morning at the Worthing Street Baptist church. Rev. Walter A. Woodbury conducted both services and was pleased to have such good attendances under the prevailing circumstances. He spoke in the evening on "Two Great Armies and Their Supporters."

Christian Science
The regular meetings were held at both Christian Science churches yesterday. The subject under discussion was "Probation After Death." Testimonial meeting Wednesday at 7.45 p. m.

Elliot Congregational
"Hope and Wait" was the topic for the morning service at the Elliot Congregational church, with preaching by the pastor, Rev. Herbert A. Barker. Next Sunday morning Rally Day exercises will be held.

First Congregational
Rev. Chauncey J. Hawkins, the new pastor of the First Congregational church conducted both services at the church yesterday, taking for his topic in the morning, "The Christianity Needed Today." Miss Jessie French, contralto soloist, and the quartet furnished a special musical program. The subject for the evening service was, "What Has Become of the Kaiser's God?"

Kirk Street Congregational
The pastor of the Kirk Street Congregational church, Rev. William E. English, Jr., is expected soon to be fully recovered from the attack of grip, and will supply the pulpit next Sunday. At the service yesterday morning Rev. George M. Ward, D.D., took his text from John 4:23, "But the hour cometh and now is when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth; for the Father seeketh such to worship Him." He dwelt on the question which is often put to him as to why God does not interfere with the war, emphasizing the point that people must realize that God's kingdom is a spiritual one and that it has never yet dominated or ruled the world in connection with the affairs of men, and said, "You cannot

Pawtucket Congregational
"Transforming Hope" was the subject for the sermon yesterday morning at the Pawtucket Congregational church, the pastor, Rev. A. G. Lyon conducting both services. Rally day was observed in the Sunday school, when there were interesting exhibits of war relics sent by men connected with the church who are now in service. Two large maps were on display and with the photographs of the different men, their present locations were traced on these maps. "Christian Discipline" was the topic for the evening service.

St. Anne's Episcopal
Rev. Appleton Grannis conducted all the regular services at St. Anne's Episcopal church yesterday, preaching in the morning on "Educational Problems." The Girls' Friendly society meets tonight at 7.30 at the parish house, and the Boy Scouts on Wednesday evening.

St. John's Episcopal
At the holy communion service which was observed yesterday morning at St. John's Episcopal church, the recent suggestion of Bishop Lawrence was followed. Next Sunday, Nov. 3, the Sunday school and evening service will again resume activities.

Jewish Synagogue
The regular services of the Jewish synagogue were resumed on Saturday.

Swedish Lutheran
Rev. Peter E. Nordgren conducted the services at the Swedish Lutheran church yesterday, preaching in the morning on the subject, "Keep Your Lights Burning."

First Swedish Methodist Episcopal
Rev. A. J. Allington conducted the service held yesterday morning at the First Swedish Methodist Episcopal church.

Highland Methodist Episcopal
"Harden Hearing" was the topic of the sermon yesterday morning at the Highland Methodist Episcopal church, with preaching by the pastor, Rev. R. W. Hutchinson.

First Primitive Methodist
The regular services of the First Primitive Methodist church were resumed yesterday, with a fairly large attendance at all services held. The pastor made no special effort for increased attendance, preferring the natural course under existing conditions. The Rev. N. W. Matthews preached in the morning on, "Calling Upon God in Trouble," Psalm 50:15. In the evening his theme was, "Meditations on Forty Years of Ministry," Dent. 27. With the services of Sunday, Rev. Mr. Matthews has completed 40 years in

HEALTH AUTHORITIES

In the present epidemic are urging everybody to do two things—gargle throat twice a day and wash hands frequently, especially before eating. They say that the disease is spread by the breath and secretions of the body, especially the nose and throat. Hands are constantly exposed and it is surprising how often they are put to the mouth and other parts of the face. For this reason, wash with Lifebuoy Health Soap. Special, 3 Cakes for 20¢

DRUGGISTS!! PLEASE NOTE
VICK'S VAPORUB OVERSOLD

Tremendous Demand Last Few Days Has Wiped Out Excess Stocks. That We Had Estimated Would Last Until Next January. Last Week's Orders Called for One and Three Quarter Million Jars—Today's Orders Alone Amount to 932,459 Jars

Big Shipments Are En Route to Jobbers. Until These Arrive There May Be a Temporary Shortage. All Deals Postponed—Buy in Small Lots Only

RETAILERS CAN GET IMMEDIATE SHIPMENTS DIRECT BY PARCEL POST

This advertisement is written on Monday, October 21st. It is directed to the attention of all distributors of Vick's Vaporub, both wholesale and retail. In an emergency such as the present epidemic—our duty—and your duty—is to distribute Vaporub in the quickest possible manner to those persons stricken by influenza. We, therefore, call your careful attention to the following:

DANGER OF SHORTAGE IF SUPPLY IS NOT CONSERVED

On October 1st we had on hand, at our factory and in twenty warehouses scattered over the country, sufficient Vaporub to last us, we thought, until January 1st, allowing for a 50 per cent. increase over last year's sales, and not counting our daily output. This has already been called in to meet the epidemic, and the supply is now almost exhausted. We have, therefore, called your attention to the fact that the epidemic is now upon us, and that the supply is almost exhausted. We have, therefore, called your attention to the fact that the epidemic is now upon us, and that the supply is almost exhausted.

Up to Saturday, October 19th, we have actually shipped for this month 932,459 jars, or over two million jars of Vaporub.

THE PROBLEM NOW IS TO DIS-TRIBUTE VAPORUB QUICKLY

Most of this tremendous quantity is still en route to the jobbers, out freight and express are both congested now, and it may be some time before this supply reaches the centers. In the meantime, therefore, it is necessary that we distribute, as widely as possible, the stock that we are manufacturing daily, together with that now on the jobbers' and retailers' shelves, in order that it may get to the influenza districts quickly. The normal output is about 1,000 jars per day. We are putting on a night shift, but it will take a little while before that is producing.

Last Saturday we notified all of our jobbers, by Special Delivery, as follows:

1st—To make quantity shipments of all kinds are requested. Fill no quantity orders of any kind, whether taken by our jobbers or by your own. Sell in small lots only.

2nd—Order from us in as small quantities as possible. If you are out we will try to ship a limited amount by Parcel Post or express, but you must pay the charges ourselves.

3rd—In order to make distribution still quicker, we will ship direct to your retail customers quantities not more than three (3) dozen 30c size at any one shipment.

4th—We are now out of the 60c size and will be for the next 10 days.

WHAT WE ASK THE RETAIL DRUGGIST TO DO

Buy in as small quantities as possible. If you have any quantity order given to the jobbers' salesmen or given to our salesmen, don't bother about them—no need to write us—it is absolutely impossible to fill these orders at this time. If the jobbers in your territory are out of Vick's Vaporub, we will ship you by Parcel Post, prepaid, quantities not more than three (3) dozen 30c size at any one order.

Naturally, we can't open accounts at this time, so your check or money order for this amount must accompany your order. Don't write us stating to ship through your jobber, as we then have to wait until we write this jobber and get his O. K. If you wish the goods to come through your jobber, have him order them for you.

SOWN UNDER WITH CORRESPONDENCE

Our force has already been "shot to pieces"—twenty-four of our men are wearing Uncle Sam's khaki—and this recent rush has simply buried us. All right, if you wish, we will try to help in the office and factory. We just mention this so you won't hold it against us if your wires and letters aren't answered promptly.

SPECIAL BOOKLETS ON SPANISH INFLUENZA

We will send, on request, to any retail druggist, 10 or more little booklets, just issued, on Spanish Influenza, giving the latest information about this disease, its history, the symptoms, its treatment and particularly the use of Vick's Vaporub as an external application to supplement the physician's treatment.

NEW WAYS TO USE VAPORUB

In addition to the usual method of using Vaporub—that is, applied over the throat and chest and covered with hot flannel cloth—our customers are writing us daily telling of their success in using Vaporub in other ways, particularly as a preventive. They melt a little in a spoon and inhale the vapors arising, or melt it in a benzoin steam kettle. Where the steam kettle is not available, Vaporub can be used in an ordinary tea-kettle. Fill the tea-kettle half full of boiling water, put in half a teaspoon of Vaporub from top to time—keep the kettle just slowly boiling and inhale the steam arising.

According to a Bulletin just issued by the Public Health Service, Dr. Stiles of this service recommends that the nose be kept greased with a preventive measure against the influenza germs. For this purpose Vaporub is excellent.

BOVININE
for Strength

FOR children, especially in the nutritional disorders of childhood, BOVININE is exceptionally valuable. It combines the administration of iron with a non-irritating and concentrated form of nourishment.

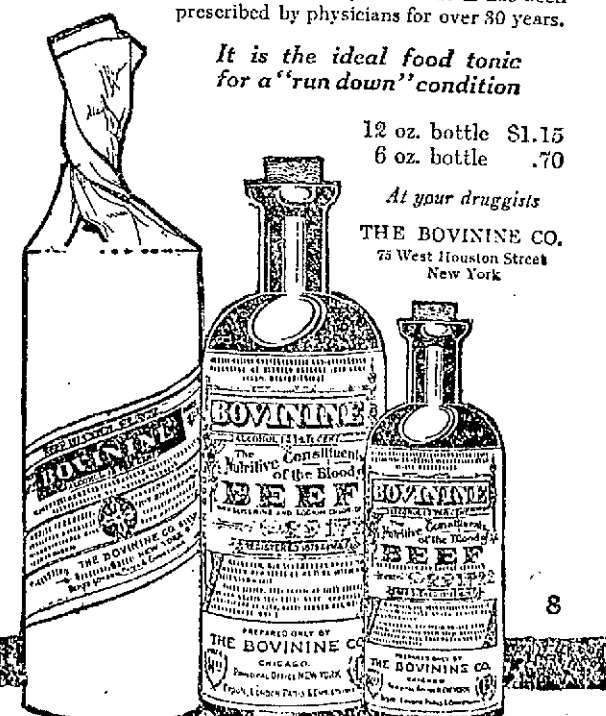

BOVININE contains the substances in normal blood serum which combat bacterial infection, having the vital elements of beef blood unaltered by the destructive action of heat.

For anemic children and adults and for the building up and invigorating of invalids convalescing after severe illness, BOVININE has been prescribed by physicians for over 30 years.

It is the ideal food tonic for a "run down" condition

SOLDIERS FIRED ON AT ROAD HOUSE

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Oct. 28.—Lieut. Hamlin Hamlin and a detachment of provost guard men from Camp Devens forced their way into a roadhouse in Cumberland early yesterday and captured ten men and nine women who had refused to give themselves up. The occupants of the house had fired upon the soldiers and had held deputies from the United States Marshal's office in Providence and members of the New England Watch and Ward society at bay for more than an hour.

Charles Caswell of Lynn, Mass., an agent of the Watch and Ward society, was hit in the left leg by a bullet fired from a window in the upper story of the roadhouse.

Lieut. Hamlin arrived with his detachment while the inmates were firing upon the federal officers and Watch and Ward agents, who had taken cover behind automobiles and trees. He demanded in the name of the president of the United States that all in the house surrender. The response was another volley from the roadhouse windows.

Lieut. Hamlin ordered his men to surround the house. He went to a window, smashed the blinds off and broke the glass. Pushing his revolver into the room, he repeated his demand. The inmates, who had gone upstairs, refused to come out.

The soldiers then rushed the house, smashing in the front door. They went through the rooms, covering men and women with revolvers. Evidently frightened by the quick action, the inmates made no further resistance. Lieut. Hamlin seized a man who was holding a shotgun and turned him over to the deputy marshal.

Several men in uniform were included among the prisoners.

A double line of federal officers, agents of the Watch and Ward society and military police was drawn up in the road outside the house and the prisoners marched out. The light of automobiles were turned on the line so that none of the prisoners could escape in the darkness.

Rev. J. Frank Chase of Boston, president of the Watch and Ward society, said that the procession of prisoners, with women crying and screaming and men in uniform looking dejected, was a pitiable sight. It was upon evidence furnished by Mr. Chase that the raid was undertaken.

Two women in the house who were found to be seriously ill from influenza were removed to a hospital in this city. Lieut. Hamlin declared that the sanitary conditions in the house were deplorable.

All of the prisoners will appear in the federal court in Providence today, charged with resisting arrest and firing upon soldiers of the United States. The law provides for a maximum penalty of 30 years' imprisonment for persons found guilty of these charges.

Before the raid six deputy marshals

had entered a house on Diamond Hill, this city, seeking violators of the Mann act. Thirty men and seven women were questioned, but no arrests were made.

Mr. Chase said last night that the raids were the first of a series to be conducted until every house of the sort in New England is closed.

NEW RETREAT ON CZECHS CONTROL FOOD

Germany's Armies Now Fleeing Between the Oise and the Aisne

Signal Victory for General Debeney's First Army in Hard Fighting

PARIS, Oct. 28.—Germany's armies have begun a new retreat, this time between the Oise and the Aisne, General Debeney's first army, in the face of stubborn resistance and repeated counter attacks, has succeeded in swinging on its right flank so that it faces east. It has reached Guise and the Guise-Marle road, driving the enemy before it.

General Debeney is now in position to push rapidly along the upper Oise valley through a level country devoid of streams. The first result of his progress is to force the enemy opposing the Tenth and Fifth French armies, exhausted by fruitless counter attacks, to begin a backward movement which is eventually bound to extend to the front before Reims. This will open to the Fourth army a double passage of the Aisne and Ardennes canal.

General Debeney's success was won by sheer hard fighting. The importance of the enemy attached to stopping their progress on the Oise may be gathered from the fact that the Germans yesterday threw in three fresh divisions which, however, were knocked out.

SIGNAL VICTORY FOR GEN. DEBENEY'S ARMY

WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES IN FRANCE, Oct. 28.—(Reuter's)—General Debeney's army has won a signal victory. The German forces holding the Serre-Oise front are in retreat and the whole German line between Chateau-Porcien and the Argonne, is in danger of being turned.

Persistent attacks by General Debeney's indefatigable infantry has broken the river line, which is the last water-line commanded by the enemy between the present front and the Meuse.

EX-SEN. HALE DEAD

ELLSWORTH, Me., Oct. 28.—The funeral of former Senator Eugene Hale who died at Washington last night, will be held at his home here on Wednesday. His body is expected to arrive here tomorrow.

In Yakima County, Wash., Miss Ruth Hutchinson has the nomination for auditor, and her father, Samuel Hutchinson, has the nomination for sheriff.

Austria Turns Over Entire Control to Czech Authorities in Bohemia

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 28.—Austria has handed over entire control of food supply and distribution to the Czech authorities in Bohemia, a Vienna despatch to the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin says, with the result that 100 carloads of potatoes are on their way to the famishing Austrian capital.

A despatch from Prague to the same newspaper, dated Oct. 27, says that, in compliance with a demand made by American bankers, the Czech leaders have given an undertaking that the prospective Czech government shall make every effort to have the new regime in Bohemia come into operation without excesses.

The correspondent adds that this is borne out by the entirely calm behavior of the Czechs in Prague, who are entitled to credit, at least for the present, for keeping perfect discipline.

NATIONAL POLICY FOR STABILIZING WAGES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—First recommendations of the National Labor Adjusting committee, which is working out a national policy for stabilization of wages of all skilled and unskilled labor employed on government work, were published today. They affect shipworkers and anthracite coal miners.

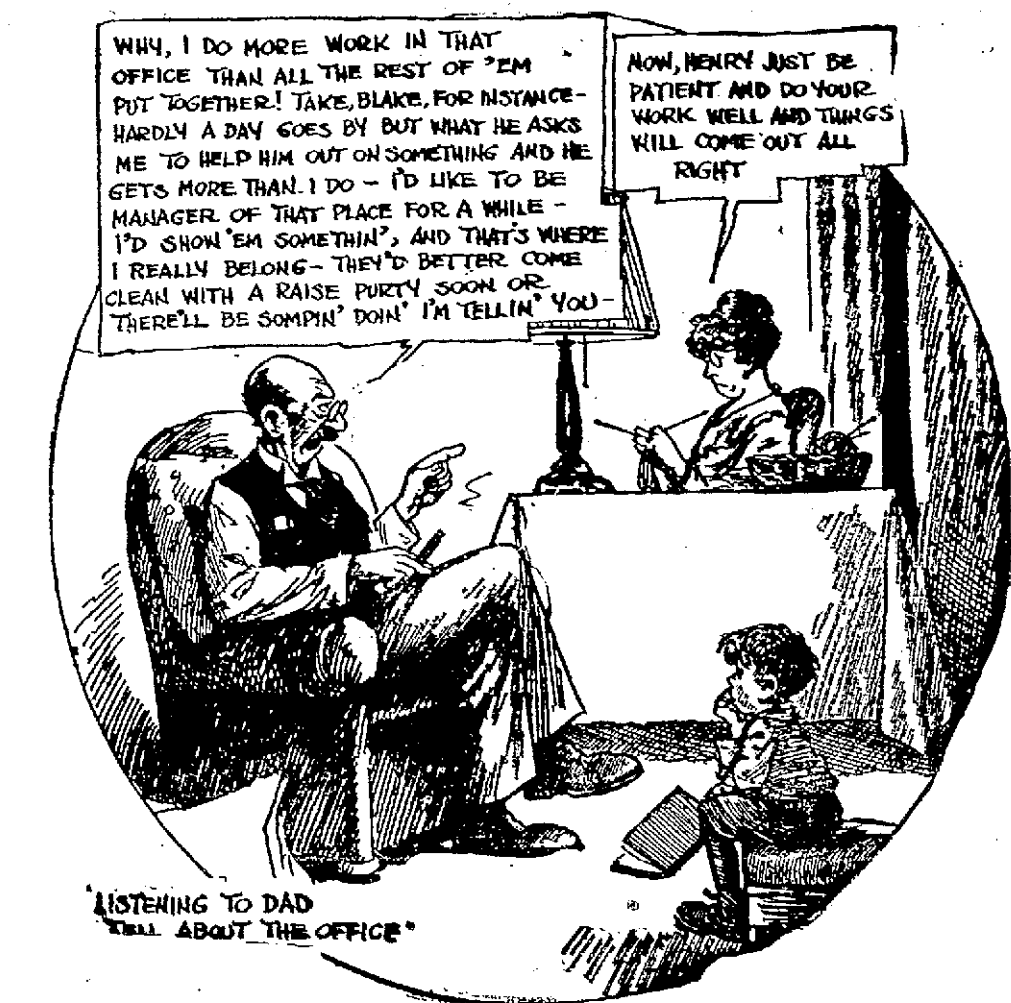

Generally the country is divided into two districts, one for the Pacific coast and one for the Atlantic, Gulf and Great Lakes. In the first increases 20 per cent are allowed and in the second 15 per cent. The Pacific coast award is retroactive to August 1.

For anthracite miners, the committee recommended wages ranging from 47 cents an hour for laborers outside the mine, to estimated average earnings for contract miners of approximately $6.50 a day.

NEW K. OF C. SERVICE HOUSE DEDICATED

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—In the presence of representatives of church and state, officials of the army and navy, men prominent in professional and commercial life and throng that packed the street, the new Knights of Columbus club on Berkeley street was formally dedicated yesterday afternoon. The weather was ideal for an out-of-door ceremony.

The exercises were presided over by Judge William J. Day, state deputy of the K. of C. In his opening address, Judge Day related briefly what the Knights of Columbus is doing for the soldiers and sailors of the United States and allied nations. He read a letter from Cardinal O'Connell expressing regret at his inability to be present and heartily commending the work.

The opening prayer was said by Rev. Joseph F. Conninger of St. Augustine's church, South Boston, after which a large American flag, the gift of Mrs. Lawrence J. Logan of South Boston, mother of Col. Edward L. Logan of the 101st regiment, was unfurled by Paul G. and William J. Day, Jr., sons of Judge Day.

State Accepts Building Key

Lieut. Gov. Coolidge, on behalf of the state, accepted the key to the building, and expressed the pleasure it gave him publicly to recognize the patriotism of the Knights of Columbus.

"This building," he said, "speaks eloquently of the self-sacrifice of the people that they may show their appreciation of what our boys in the service are doing. The Knights of Columbus has earned the respect, confidence and admiration of the nation."

Lieut. Gov. Coolidge stated that, as the door would never again be locked until the purpose for which the war is being fought had been accomplished, threw the key away.

Commodore B. T. Walling, representing Admiral Spencer Wood; Rev. Chas. W. Lyons, president of Boston college; Rev. James D. MacNair and Rev. Daniel G. Burns, chaplains at the Charles-town navy yard, made brief addresses.

Mrs. Edwin A. Shuman, head of a large committee of prominent women, who will aid in the maintenance of the building, made a plan for the support of the women of the city in the undertaking. She stated that the first affair to be held in the building will be a Halloween party next Thursday evening.

Sing Patriotic Songs

During the exercises music was furnished by the Mission Church band. The gathering sang "The Star Spangled Banner" and "America." At the conclusion of the exercises the building was thrown open for inspection. An orchestra furnished music inside.

Several thousand persons passed through and were loud in their praise of provisions made for the comfort of men in the service. The building has been completely remodelled at a cost of about $40,000. It has beds to accommodate more than 300, baths, complete laundry equipment, moving picture theatre, pool and billiard tables, a kitchen, a large assembly hall and everything that may be found in an up-to-date club house.

"Everybody Welcome and Everything Free" is the motto of the building. Secretaries will be on hand to look after the welfare of the men and everything possible will be done to add to their convenience.

GREEKS WERE CRUELLY TREATED BY BULGARS

SALONIKI, Saturday, Oct. 26.—The Bulgarians, during their occupation of eastern Macedonia, attempted to force the Greeks of that province to become Bulgarians and treated the Greeks cruelly, declares Dr. Pazis, vice president of the Greek chamber of deputies and deputy for Serres.

"There were wholesale deportations and the people were abandoned to famine, outrage and murder," said Dr. Pazis who has returned from a trip through eastern Macedonia. "The destruction of villages far from the war zone was a measure to which the Bulgarians would not have recourse had eastern Macedonia been Bulgarian instead of Greek. The Bulgarians gathered together a large number of Greek children and sent them into Bulgaria without the parents of the children knowing the purposes of the Bulgarians."

In a hospital in Saloniki is a 14-year-old Greek girl, Agathe Nouti, who was cruelly treated by the Bulgarians who murdered her father and mother. The father, the mayor of Bourgade, died at the hands of the Bulgarians with these words on his lips: "I was born a Greek and I will die a Greek."

The girl's mother died as a result of inhuman treatment at the hands of Bulgarian officers.

RAPID DECREASE IN THE INFLUENZA CASES

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—Statewide figures submitted by the state board of health today indicated a rapid decrease in the number of cases of influenza and deaths during the past two days. A tabulation of the reports from 80 cities and towns for the 48 hour period showed 1237 new cases and 34 deaths.

New Bedford and Springfield reported the largest numbers, the former city having 198 new cases with 18 deaths and the latter 137 new cases with nine deaths.

In Boston there were but 26 new cases reported, with 11 deaths.

ANSWERS CRITICS

Wilson Replies to Republican Contentions of Third of His 14 Peace Terms

Explains Third Term, Which Republicans Contended Was Free Trade Plank

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—President Wilson replied today to republican contentions that the third of his fourteen peace terms is a free trade plank by explaining that in demanding the removal of economic barriers he meant to suggest no restriction upon international economic policies but only that whatever tariff high or low, any nation might deem necessary, it should apply equally to all foreign nations.

The president made the explanation in a letter to Senator Simmons of North Carolina, chairman of the senate finance committee, who had written him asking for a statement, "because certain republican leaders are attempting to make partisan use" of the paragraph.

"Weapons of economic discipline and punishment," the president wrote, "should be left to the joint action of all nations for the purpose of punishing those who will not submit to a general program of justice and equality."

He added that to inject the hoggy of free trade, which was not involved at all, was to attempt to divert the mind of the nation from a broad principle of a durable peace, and that it was lamentable that momentous issues of this solemn hour should be seized upon in an effort to bend them to partisan service.

The president's letter follows: "Dear Senator: I am glad to respond to the question addressed to me by your letter of Oct. 26. The words 'I used in my address to the Congress of January 8, 1918, were: 'The removal, so far as possible, of all economic barriers and the establishment of an equality of trade conditions among all the nations consenting to the peace and associating themselves for its maintenance.'"

"I, of course, meant to suggest no restriction upon the free determination by any nation of its own economic policy, but only that whatever tariff any nation might deem necessary for its own economic service be that tariff high or low, it should apply equally to all foreign nations; in other words that there should be no discriminations against some nations that did not apply to others."

"This leaves every nation free to determine for itself its own internal policies and limits only its right to the joint action of all nations for the purpose of punishing those who will not submit to a general program of justice and equality."

"The experiences of the past among nations have taught us that the attempt by one nation to punish another by exclusive and discriminatory trade agreements has been a prolific breeder of that kind of antagonism which ultimately results in war, and that if a permanent peace is to be established among nations every obstacle that has stood in the way of international friendship should be cast aside. It was with that fundamental purpose in mind that I announced this principle in my address of Jan. 8. To pervert this great principle for partisan purposes, and to inject the hoggy of free trade, which is not involved at all, is to attempt to divert the mind of the nation from the broad and humane principle of a durable peace by introducing an internal question of quite another kind. American business has in the past been unaffected by a policy of simple international justice. It is indeed lamentable that the momentous issues of this solemn hour should be seized upon in an effort to bend them to partisan service. To the initiated and discerning the motive is transparent and the attempt fails.

"Sincerely yours, WOODROW WILSON."

MISS LEEDS APPOINTED REGISTRATION AGENT

Announcement was made today of the appointment of Miss Dorothy S. Leeds as registration agent for Lowell under the provisions of the "work or fight" law, to succeed John M. O'Donoghue, who has entered the national service. Miss Leeds' appointment comes from Charles F. Gettemy, director of the "work or fight" bureau for Massachusetts.

The new registration agent has assisted Mr. O'Donoghue materially in the enforcement of the law and practically all of the detailed clerical work has been in her hands. Since Mr. O'Donoghue's entrance into the Students' Army Training corps, she has administered the work herself and her formal appointment comes only as a natural promotion.

Miss Leeds is chief stenographer at the war work headquarters and is a graduate of the Lowell high school, class of 1915. She was a Carney medal scholar and secretary of her class.

WILLIAM D. STEWART DEAD

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—William Dunbar Stewart, general manager of the National Fertilizer Co., died today at his home in Brookline, after an illness of four days. He was widely known in agricultural circles in New England and Canada.

LOWELL MEN'S NAMES ON CASUALTY LIST

Today's casualty list contains the names of two Lowell men. Private William J. Mitchell of the 107th Infantry is reported dead from wounds received in action and Corp. John T. McQuesten of Co. K, 104th Infantry, is reported wounded, degree undetermined.

Private Mitchell is a brother of Miss Mary Mitchell of 149 East Merrimack street. She has received word that the Lowell soldier died in France on Sept. 22. He enlisted in New York City some time ago and was at first with the 12th New York Regiment, but later transferred to the 107th Infantry.

Besides his sister, he leaves a brother, James, of Lowell, Thomas of New York City and Patrick of Syracuse, N. Y.

Corp. John T. McQuesten

Word of Corp. McQuesten being wounded has previously reached Lowell through a message from the war department. Corp. McQuesten is the son of Mrs. Alina McQuesten of 116 D street. He enlisted in Co. K of the 104th Regiment on December 13, 1915.

Private Claude I. Brown

Sunday's casualty list contained the name of Private Claude I. Brown of Tyngsboro, reported severely wounded in action. He is now recuperating at the Walter Reed hospital in Washington, D. C. Private Brown is the son of E. I. Brown of the Wannalancet Inn, Tyngsboro, and went to Camp Devens last spring. He was later transferred to Long Island and eventually to England. He went to France early in the summer.

Private Brown was injured in action July 21 and has lost one of his legs as a result. He is 27 years of age and was connected with Co. K, 55th Infantry.

Private John F. O'Donnell

Yesterday's casualty list also contained the name of Private John F. O'Donnell of Battery F, 36th Field Artillery, reported slightly wounded on August 21. He is the son of Mrs. Mary F. O'Donnell of 10 Howe street and in a letter recently received here he said he had been gassed but no mention was made of his being wounded.

Private O'Donnell went to Camp Devens shortly after its opening and sailed overseas early this year. He was formerly employed by the American Hide & Leather Co., and was well known in amateur baseball circles a few years ago. He is a former member of the O.M.I. Cadets.

$5,000,000 IS BOSTON'S SHARE OF CAMPAIGN

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—Metropolitan Boston's share to be raised through the United War Work campaign is $5,000,000, plus the 50 per cent additional suggested by President Wilson and the war department in consideration of the constant increase in numbers of men in the service. Frank V. Remick is chairman of the Metropolitan district, which embraces 22 cities and towns. Lynn, the largest city in the district with a war chest fund, will be asked to give $300,000.

FOUND DEAD ON HIS WIFE'S GRAVE

EAST RUTHERFORD, N. J., Oct. 28.—With one hand holding his violin in his accustomed place, under his chin, and the other clasping a revolver, Adam Bombhugh was found dead today, seated at his wife's grave. He had gone there to play his wife's favorite tune, "Ave Maria" as he explained in a note found beside him because that brought him "nearer her."

Entertainment and Dance BY Y.M.C.I. AT Their Club House, Stackpole St., Tuesday Eve., Oct. 29 Tickets 35 Cents Braderick's Orchestra Concert 8 to 9 Dancing 9 to 12

Solemn Thought BY EDMUND VANCE COORE

"Now comes a solemn, solemn day.
Set back the clock, dear wife!
And weep with me, we've thrown away
A precious hour of life.

"And each of all this swarming throng
Has tossed his hour away.
We stand a hundred million strong
And mourn our loss today.

"A hundred million precious hours!
It sets one in a haze.
Why, figured roughly by the Powers!
It makes four million days.

"I'm weak at figures, that I know.
But surely it appears.
Four million days yield, figured low,
A good ten thousand years.

"Ten thousand years we've thrown away
By setting back the clock.
Ten thousand years, it turns me gray!
It gives one's soul a shock.

"Why, that, perhaps, is twice the span
Of our mortal race.
Twice the historic years of man
Of which we have a trace.

"Give it to me, this space of time,
This waste beyond all price!
I'll make an Eden more sublime
Than Adam's Paradise.

"No Hercules shall be as strong!
No Aristotle wiser!
I'll make all life one grand, sweet song!
I'll civilize the Kaiser!"

I dearly love to speculate
On matters of this sort.
But wives are wives, and here my mate
Broke in and cut me short:

"If all men make the same to-do,
Or say 'to-do-les' rather,
A thousand years are gone, since you Began your silly blather!"

Now by the gods of Greece and Rome,
And angels of the skies!
That's all the help I get at home,
When I philosophize.

SIX STAGES IN MAKING OF THE ORIGINAL AVIATOR

Here are the six ages of the carrier pigeon—the six stages in the development of the feathered aviators whose homing instinct has made them invaluable in war's emergency service. First the egg; then the open mouth of insatiable hunger; third, the pinfeathered ugly nestling; fourth, the fledgling trying out its wings; fifth, the flying novice learning to tumble and dodge and do stunts that no human aviator can emulate; and last, the beautiful bird whose love of home and mate defies all peril and solves every problem of space and direction—the feathered sorcerer of the soldier, often saving entire battalions with a timely message.

WORK ON GOVERNMENT HOUSES STARTED

The Lowell Housing corporation started work on the homes for the United States government this morning on the Rogers street tract, Belvidere. No lumber or building material had arrived on the lot when about 35 workmen of various kinds started in but the first load arrived about 10.30. Laborers employed by the Lowell Gas Light Co. were trenching for a gas line this morning. Work was started simultaneously this morning on three cellar foundations. Three horse scrapers are used on each cellar and there is a constant excavating going on. One pair of horses following another pair, and the dirt for the cellars being carried to a pile in the rear of each individual lot. There is some building stone already on the ground and masons will undoubtedly start work on one or more foundations by Thursday.

The contractor for these buildings is J. E. Poland of Quincy, who is finishing a big building contract for the United States government at Quincy. His representative on the job here is Mr. Grossman of Lynn.

The cellars will be built partly of stone and partly of concrete. There is a steam shovel now on the "lot" and also a power concrete mixing machine. Poland has six months to finish these houses in but will try for a record here and hustle the work along faster than even the contract calls for. He has a big adv. in today's Sun advertising for help and is anxious to favor Lowell's skilled and unskilled workers in every way possible.

LOWELL MOTORISTS LOSE LICENSES

(Special to The Sun.)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Oct. 28.—The licenses of three Lowell motorists have been revoked by the Massachusetts highway commission, as a result of their being convicted on the charge of operating motor vehicles while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Tyler A. Wolton was convicted in the Methuen court October 17, and paid a fine of $50; Henry Winn was convicted in the Haverhill court October 18, was fined one hundred dollars and appealed; while Frank D. Hunkins was convicted in the Lawrence court October 21 and paid a fine of $20.

Licenses Suspended

Edwin G. Morrison, of Lowell, has been notified by the commission that his license has been suspended, pending an investigation of the accident in which he was involved October 18, and which resulted in the death of Gerald Klah of Lowell. After the investigation has been completed, Morrison will be given an opportunity to appear before the commission to convince its members that the accident occurred without fault on his part, and if successful in this his license will be returned.

NEWS OF THE DAY IN THE POLICE COURT

A little clever work on the part of members of the vice squad last evening resulted in the arrest and conviction of five men for gambling on the Lord's day. According to the story told in court this morning by Officer Francis Moore, a man called at the station Saturday evening and complained of losing $50 in a card game in a house in Colburn street. The same party returned last evening and insisted that the house be raided, but it was no easy matter for the arm of the law to reach into the place. The members of the vice squad, however, were sent to the place and after climbing over the roof of a building, they managed to get into the house and the following men were taken to the station on a charge of gambling on the Lord's day: Ernest Belanger, Frank Dugan, Peter Bergdon, Joseph Merrill and Edward J. Smith.

Larceny from a Soldier

Nellie Lavigne, a young woman who came here from Nashua a few weeks ago, was arraigned before Judge Enright on a charge of larceny of $15 from Priv. Harry J. Lamb of Camp Devens. The young man informed the court that Saturday he met the Lavigne woman in a local restaurant and then took an automobile ride to a house in North Chelmsford. He claimed that it was while he was in the house that the woman relieved him of his money. After hearing the evidence the court found the defendant guilty and imposed a fine of $10.

Will Be Examined

Carl J. Pihl was arrested in a house in Chelmsford yesterday on a charge of unlawfully entering a dwelling house. The court was informed that Pihl went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Swanson in Chelmsford yesterday and tried to do so. It is claimed that Pihl claimed he was sent by a "higher power" and that under no consideration could he leave. His case was continued until tomorrow so that he may be examined by Dr. Benier as to his sanity.

Violation of Auto Law

Cases of Drunkenness

Cases of drunkenness were disposed of as follows: Thos. J. Ellis, case continued until tomorrow; Jennie Courtmanche, 3 months in jail; she appealed. Thomas Kilkenny, $15 fine; James P. Flannery, case continued until Friday; Frank D. Harris, case continued until tomorrow.

APPOINTED STENOGRAPHER IN OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

Miss Margaret Enwright has been appointed stenographer for the local office of the United States employment service at 119 Merrimack street by the local labor community board of which Frederick X. Wier is chairman. The appointment comes as a result of a civil service examination which Miss Enwright passed successfully. Although the local office of the employment service has been open several months, Examiner Cornelius F. Cronin has so far done his own stenographic work. The persistently increasing volume of business, however, has necessitated the appointment of Miss Enwright.

CORP. GEORGE WHELTON SLIGHTLY INJURED

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Whelton, of 171 Mount Vernon street, have received a letter from the U. S. base hospital 50, France, stating that their son, Corp. George B. Whelton, a member of one of the former national army units now connected with the American expeditionary forces, has been slightly wounded and one of his arms has been broken. The letter was dictated by Corp. Whelton himself and written by a member of the American Red Cross on duty at the hospital.

Corp. Whelton says that he is being well cared for and hoped to be able to write himself in a short time. His letter is dated Sept. 26, but he does not say when he was injured.

The Lowell boy is 24 years old and entered the national service last March when he was assigned to Camp Devens. He went overseas about two months ago.

Another brother, Sergt. Thomas Whelton of Co. A, 53rd regular infantry, is also in France. He is 26 years old and has been in the service since last July.

THOMAS L. TULLY IS MADE SERGEANT

Word has been received here that Thomas L. Tully, of 17 So. Whipple street, Lowell, Mass., has been promoted to sergeant. Sergeant Tully was formerly employed by the Texas company and previous to his enlistment was employed as a stenographer at the naval torpedo station, Newport, R. I. Although working for the government his ambitions led him to enlist in the Tank Corps, New York, May 1918. From New York he was transferred to Camp Coll, Gettysburg, Pa., where he is at present serving as a sergeant for Uncle Sam.

APPEAL FOR NUT SHELLS

The local Red Cross has received an appeal from its central organization for the shells of walnuts, butternuts and Brazilian nuts to be used in making gas masks for the boys "over there." In turn the local chapter appeals to the boys and girls of Lowell to save these shells and bring them to the Red Cross rooms in Market street.

FIREMEN ON VACATION

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

The following publicity committee for the united war work campaign which begins here Nov. 11 was appointed today: Charles Durr, chairman; H. S. Proctor, R. O'Connell, P. R. Moody, A. R. Campbell, C. T. Martin, William A. Parker and Dr. E. A. Kent. Mr. Parker will be vice chairman of the committee.

FIRE IN STORE

An alarm from box 116 at 10.21 o'clock this forenoon summoned a portion of the fire department to the store at the corner of Adams and Cross streets, where a pile of paper and rubbish in the back part of the store was burning. The blaze was extinguished before any damage was done.

Sen. Knox, Republican, Protests Any Peace Terms Dictated by President Alone

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—A protest against any peace terms dictated by President Wilson alone, and not representative of American public opinion through senate consideration of the peace treaty, was made in the senate today by Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, republican, former secretary of state, in an address charging the president with political partisanship.

Democratic senators prepared to reply to Senator Knox, forecasting a general discussion of peace and war combined with the partisan political questions.

from Fumars, south of Valenciennes, where the British have outflanked that town. Farther south the British have pushed closer to the Mormal forest, and north of Valenciennes toward Tournai they have gained further ground north of the Ralsmas forest.

French Reach Guise

Gen. Debeney's first French army continues to press the Germans back between the Oise and the Serre. Officially they are reported in the outskirts of Guise and along the road between Guise and the important railroad point of Marle, toward which Gen. Mangin is advancing east of the Serre. Farther east, toward the Aisne, the Germans are reported to be retreating before the continued French pressure.

Fought on Italian Front

Fighting continues in the Italian theatre with the British extending their lines east of the Piave in the region of Montello, where they have advanced more than two miles from the river. In these operations the British have captured more than 5000 prisoners. Vienna reports the recapture of Monte Asolone between the Brenta and the Piave, and the repulse of Italian efforts elsewhere in the mountain front.

Serbs Refuse Kravguvatz

In northern Serbia, the Austro-Germans have given up Kravguvatz, 65 miles southeast of Belgrade. The town formerly was the main Serbian arsenal and is of vital strategic importance.

Germans in Retreat

German forces holding the sharp salient between the Serre and the Oise rivers in France, have been compelled to abandon their positions, which they had obstinately held for the last 12 days. The French armies on either side of this salient launched a blow on Saturday which flattened out the angle in the enemy's front and which may have a very definite effect on the German line eastward through Rethel and the Argonne forest to the Meuse river.

Report Hounding Line Broken

It may be that the Germans have prepared lines further east, to which they are now retreating along the Serre-Oise front, but they are not apparent on the map. There are few, if any, natural positions which will lend themselves to defensive operations west of Verdun, south of which there is broken country. To the north of Verdun there are extensive forests.

Austrians Fighting Savagely

There is no evidence of lowered morale in the savage resistance of the Austrians before the Italian attack in the Brenta and Piave sectors in Italy. The allied forces there have not been able to move ahead except by dint of terrific effort and at a very slow pace. It seems probable that the offensive will develop into a reconnaissance in force instead of a real offensive.

British Victory in Palestine

General Allenby's forces in Palestine, have occupied Aleppo and appear to have virtually completed the destruction of Turkish power in Syria. The way is now open for a junction between the army of Allenby and the one moving up the Tigris.

The Ban Lifted

although there were many people who refrained from congregating until a danger of "catching the flu" had passed. However, one cannot fairly judge the attitude of the public toward the theatre re-opening until after this evening's performances when nearly everybody will have had a chance to attend the theatre if he wishes to do so on the first day of grace.

The schools re-opened with fairly normal attendance although as yet to be expected, a certain number of parents kept their children home, feeling that a few days more precaution would not be amiss. Supt. Hugh J. Molloy will have figures available tomorrow to show just how the school attendance is affected.

For the first time since the influenza epidemic began to gain momentum, the board of health omitted its daily meeting today.

Up to the noon hour 26 new cases had been reported, bringing the grand total since Sept. 19 to 6395. Three more deaths were reported, making a total of 341. Yesterday 17 cases were reported and seven deaths.

Dr. C. R. Rakey, the federal health officer who has been in charge of the isolation hospital for nearly three weeks, has reported back to Washington, D. C. to await further orders. It is understood that Dr. R. L. Mayette will be in charge of the hospital until it is closed.

At noon today there were 30 patients at the hospital, 11 less than were there last night. Mrs. Arthur Murkland is still officiating as matron.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY

NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—Natural positions for defence held by the Germans north of the American lines are probably as strong as any along the entire battle front from Switzerland to the sea.

These positions which the Americans are now facing are especially strong owing to the thickly wooded districts and series of hills and ridges.

Strengthening Lines. Taking advantage of these natural military positions the Germans have thrown in strong forces of men and brought in immense quantities of artillery of various calibre, determined to hold what has been called the eastern pivot of their defence line in France at any cost.

From Grand Pre pass, where there has been fierce fighting for nearly two weeks, the Americans face the Bois de Bourgogne and Bois de Bas, which really are a continuation of the Argonne forest. Back of these great woods is the forest de Boult, all of which forms a splendid protection for troops' concentration and concealing ammunition and heavy artillery. Here

Canadians preparing for the battle of Argonne all over again.

German prisoners report that the Bois de Bourgogne is literally filled with machine guns many of them in the hills and ridges within the forest, and even installed in trees. Further east of the more wooded tracts of the Bois de Barilouart and the Bois de Taillay, to the south of which is the Freya Stellung line, which has been reached by the Americans west of Alnereville.

East of the Meuse the Americans have more wooded districts in view of the observers, the principal one of which is the Forest de Woivre, along the southern edge of which passes the Freya Stellung. To the south of the Freya Stellung are three series of smaller lines directly facing the Americans, some of which were penetrated in Thursday's fighting.

From what is known about the Freya Stellung line, it follows the hills, ridges and woods, zigzagging just north of our present line and extending eastward from the ridge north of Bois des Ilazols and runs along the northern edge of Bois de Bantheville, bending southeasterly and following the hills near Alnereville to Clerly in Pettit, crossing the Meuse, and passing along a series of wooded ridges just beyond Fontaines.

From Fontaines it passes through the Bois de Taillay and Bois de Buxy and the Bois de Breheville, thence in a northeasterly direction. Recent reports said that the Germans were working vigorously at various points along the Freya Stellung defences building additional dugouts and improving positions generally as fast as possible for a probable winter campaign.

STRIKE AT LAWRENCE

750 Operatives of the Arlington Mills Demand a 25 Per Cent Increase

LAWRENCE, Oct. 28.—About 750 operatives of the Arlington mills are on strike for a 25 per cent increase in wages and time and a half for overtime. The strikers include dyers and finishers, singlers and shear hands. At a meeting this morning a committee was appointed to confer with the mill men.

One of the men in charge of today's meeting said that Agent Mercer of the Arlington mills told him there would be a general increase in wages Dec. 1 and used this for an argument to have the men remain at work.

BRITISH CASUALTIES IN PAST WEEK 37,150

LONDON, Oct. 28.—British casualties reported for the week ending today numbered 37,150, compared with 37,150 for the previous week. They are divided as follows: Killed or died of wounds: Officers, 439; men, 5307. Wounded or missing: Officers, 1141; men, 25,305.

DAILY BULLETIN FROM WAR WORK HEADQUARTERS

119 Merrimack Street

The book promised by the chairman of the Red Triangle campaign was presented by him at a meeting of the executive committee on Saturday morning, October 26th, at the War Work headquarters.

It is a report of both campaigns, and shows a total of $48,063.07 in the first campaign, and $177,635.67 in the second campaign, including a contribution of $2140 from the Boys' Division, all of it earned money.

This report, as also that of the treasurer, Mr. C. B. Redway, was accepted, and the books and the balance of the accounting are now passed on to the State Treasurer.

Mr. Hockmeyer spoke highly of the general co-operation and whole-heartedness of all concerned. He tendered his report and this book, dedicated to the City of Lowell to be presented to the City Library.

THE RED TRIANGLE ORGANIZATION

A resolution was adopted promising FULL CO-OPERATION with those in the UNITED WAR WORK CAMPAIGN, NOVEMBER 11th to 18th, and attendance at the meeting Monday at 7.45 p. m. in the War Work Headquarters Assembly Room, 117 Merrimack street, was urged upon all their old executives.

It has been thoroughly understood that they are all on the job until the boys come back.
